Angela Backers Guilty

SAN JOSE — (AP) — Nineteen supporters of Angela Davis were convicted yesterday of illegally demonstrating on Jan. 31 outside the courthouse where she is being tried on murder, kidnap and conspiracy charges. A Municipal Court jury found the 10 women and 9 men guilty of violating a California law which prohibits picketing or parading in or near a courthouse with the intention of obstructing justice or influencing a trial.

The demonstrators were arrested while picketing the Criminal Legal Building here.
