

See this file 19 Jul 71, NYTimes story on Sandra Nemser, who was "about to file the first sex discrimination suit" against the FBI.

Notes on People byline, Albin Krebs

...ape-
...s swim-
...of the royal
...-old Princess
...e, carried off the
...e. Whatever happened to
...oblesse oblige?

Residents of Washington's Capitol Hill area have been puzzled in recent weeks by the presence, outside an unmarked building used by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, of the limousine of Chief Justice Warren E. Burger. The F.B.I. has thrown a little light on the mystery. A spokesman said that Justice Burger's 24-year-old daughter, Margaret Elizabeth, has gone to work there. The F.B.I. would say no more, but the tightly-locked, heavily shaded building is said to house the mysterious "cryptoanalysis" section," where foreign intelligence is translated and codes broken. Miss Burger, who lives with her parents in suburban Virginia, was a student teacher in a Montessori school when her father was appointed to the Supreme Court.

•
Jean Peters, whose div-from Howard Hu-final June 19
a m