

President Nixon wrote to college presidents and other education officials this weekend, asking them to convey to students the views of the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, J. Edgar Hoover, on campus disturbances. The President enclosed a statement by Mr. Hoover which he said is a "cogent and enlightening analysis of the techniques used by extremists as they attempt to trick college students into support of lawlessness, disruption and violence."