Dallas, April 9 (AP)- Three awards will be presented posthumously to Patrolman J.D. Tippit at the annual Dallas police awards dinner April 23.

Mrs. Tippit will accept the police medal of honor, the police cross and the citizens traffic commission award of heroism on behalf of her late husband, who was shot to death Nov. 22 attempting to capture the accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy, Lee Harvey Oswald.

Patrolman M.N. McDonald, who arrested Oswald in the Texas Theater that afternoon, also will receive the police medal of honor and the CTC award of heroism.
