

Otepka Hopeful on Job

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (UPI) —Otto Otepka, the State Department security officer who was demoted after giving classified information to a Senate subcommittee, hopes to have his old job back after the Nixon Administration takes over. "If the new executive branch decides to re-examine the case ... then I am sure that vindication will come in that manner," he said in an interview.