NO States-Item

CIA II

28 Sep 68

Cubans Claim Arrest of 18 in CIA Spy Ring

The broadcast said those arrested had in their possession radios, transmitters, tape recorders and code books to decipher messages. It said the alleged organizer of the ring, De los [illegible] Martinez, and two others were arrested last [illegible]. It added they were [illegible] to the convention of the American Congress [illegible] a leftist organization [illegible] after their [illegible].

[illegible] said those [illegible] been formed [illegible] Revolutionary [illegible].

[illegible] FERNANDEZ [illegible] and Can Chao, [illegible] from the [illegible] the spy ring. [illegible] in Cuba; [illegible] received sup[illegible] other funds, it added. [illegible] radio said the [illegible] Chao at Boca [illegible] Havana suburb, was used to transmit and receive radio messages.

Among items seized from those arrested, it said, was special paper to be used with invisible ink. It said the group fed the CIA information regarding oil supplies and ship movements, along with other data.

The broadcasts described Fernandez Trujillo as unemployed and said Can Chao worked for the Cuban oil industry. The other persons arrested, they said, were "former members of the Batista regime and enemies of the revolution." Fulgencio Batista was ousted by Fidel Castro in 1959.

THE WOMEN arrested were identified as Ana Gloria Rodriguez Pereja, Yolanda Veliz Martinez, Magdalena Olle Vallescrat, Emilia Nunez Fernandez and Amparo Corzo.