

Notes on People byline, Albin Krebs

Francis Gary Powers, the former spy plane pilot, has gone to work for a Canadian company that makes aircraft equipment. When his U-2 was shot down over the Soviet Union in 1960, Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev canceled a summit meeting with President Dwight D. Eisenhower. After he was released from a Soviet prison in 1962, he worked as a test pilot for Lockheed Aircraft Corporation and last year was employed as pilot of a traffic-spotter plane for a Los Angeles radio station. Mr. Powers is now a senior sales administrator for Garrett Manufacturing Ltd. in Rexdale, Ontario.

See this file Aug 72, Ramparts, "catch as catch can."

See also this file 19 Jan 70, for list of other stories on Powers.