

New Book Describes 15 Anti-Castro Plots

["The Cuba Project," by Warren Hinckle and William Turner, to be released Sep 75 by Houghton Mifflin.]

The book ... claims three of the plots were previously undisclosed plans to kill Castro and his brother, Raul, to be launched from the U.S. Naval Base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

....

According to the book, the first assassination plan out of Guantanamo was a joint effort of the CIA and Office of Naval Intelligence in July, 1961. It was aimed at Raul Castro, head of the Cuban armed forces, but was uncovered by Cuban Intelligence.

The second conspiracy from the base was thwarted in September, 1961 ...

[The book] says Cuban agents smashed the third plot in October, 1961, when a triggerman from Guantanamo was picked up.
