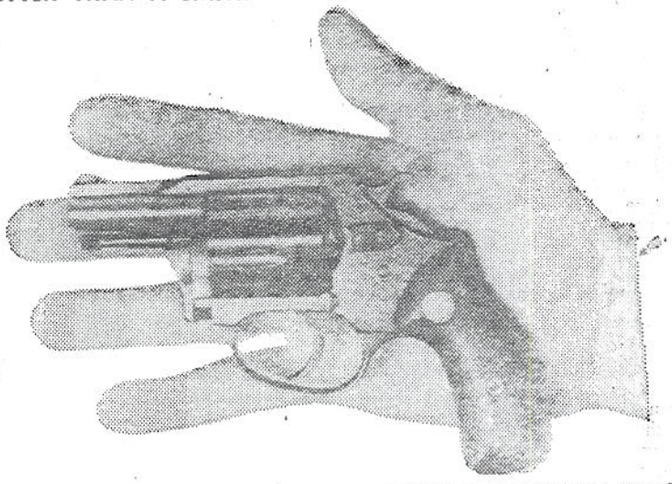
NYTimes MAY 17 1972

The New Charter Arms .38 Spec. Snub Nose Revolver

BETTER THAN A SMITH — BETTER THAN A COLT



FITS IN THE PALM OF YOUR HAND.

THE SMALLEST, LIGHTEST, STEEL FRAME .38 SPECIAL REVOLVER MADE

ONLY 4⅛ INCHES HIGH
ONLY 6¼ INCHES LONG
WEIGHS ONLY 16 OUNCES

EXTREMELY ACCURATE
HIGH LUSTRE POLICE BLUE FINISH
SMOOTH AMERICAN WALNUT GRIPS

Shoots five shots as fast as you can pull the trigger. So small, it can hide in your drawer, pocket or purse. For protection at home, office or business.

	DEALER	RETAIL
2 or 3 inch Barrel with Regular Walnut Grips	$57.49	$75.23
2 or 3 inch Barrel with Large Bulldog Grips	62.42	81.68

— FREE SHIPPING TO YOU —

TYPE OF GUN USED IN SHOOTING: An advertisement for model of revolver used by Arthur Herman Bremer. It appeared in an arms newspaper published in Columbus, Neb.