

Gov. Wallace Stands

Montgomery, Ala.

Governor George Wallace, paralyzed from the waist down, stood erect last night for the first time publicly since an attempt on his life, and addressed the legislature.

With the help of a strap built into the podium, Wallace raised himself unassisted from his wheelchair and addressed the legislators.

It was the first time Wallace had been seen standing since he was felled last May 15 by gunfire in Laurel, Md.

United Press