

14 Jul 72

Sloan resigns from CREEPx finance committee. (UPI, in NYT 19 Jul 72,* gives date of resignation as 18 Jul.

Possibility: 18 Jul was the date resignation was accepted.)

Sloan testimony before Senate Watergate committee,
6 Jun 73. Book 2, p. 551.

*Story is printed at end of continuation of a
p. 1 story, "Cairo's Hope for Recovery of Sinai Seems Weakened." See clipping.

- Excerpt from article in New Republic, 2 Jun 73, p. 17, by Walter Pincus: "On July 14 [1972] FBI agents questioned
Stans about the Mexican money; he deferred to Sloan.
The agents asked for Sloan; Stans told them 'Sloan had resigned two weeks ago.' But according to a later deposition by Sloan, he did not resign until later that day, after Stans told him what he had told the FBI."

- (In Sloan's testimony before Ervin committee he says he called Stans the evening of 13 Jul 72, told him he was considering resigning and asked to see him the following day. Stans said he had an appointment with FBI agents in the morning in his office, told Sloan not to come into the room while they were there, and that he would get in touch with him following that meeting.)
