

21 Feb 73

Walters goes to see Dean, at Schlesinger's request, and explains that it would be impossible for CIA to ask Justice Department to return package of material (see 9 Feb 73), since a note would be left in Department of Justice files that the material had been returned to the CIA, "and we had been asked not to destroy any material in any way related to the case."

Walters memo, NYT 4 Jun 73