

9 May 73

Krogh resigns as Under-Secretary of Transportation*; takes full responsibility for break-in at Dr. Fielding's office, says he acted without permission from any superior.

WXP 10 May 73

*(assumed post 2 Feb 73)

AP says Krogh's resignation brings to 10 the number of those ~~recently~~ who have recently resigned or been fired: Krogh, Haldeman, Ehrlichman, Dean, Gray, Kleindienst, Magruder, Young, Strachan, Odle; in addition, lists those who returned to private life before recent wave of exits as Colson, Chapin, Mitchell, Marjdan, LaRue, Sloan.

WXP 10 May 73

Ellsberg trial - In memo dated today and filed with Judge Byrne (no date, but made public 10 May) Ruckelshaus, acting director of the FBI, says that on 4 May he "initiated an investigation to interview present and retired FBI personnel for the purpose of determining, if possible, where there had been any [taps of Ellsberg's phone calls];" that on 8 May he received a "preliminary report" that a former FBI employee recalled that in late 1969 and early 1970 Ellsberg calls had been tapped from Morton Halperin residence.

SFC [NYT] 11 May 73

Ellsberg psychiatric profile - Dr. Bernard M. Malloy's affidavit on preparation of profile, dated today, is submitted to Ervin committee (no date) and made public 25 Sep 73. See entry that date, under Hunt/CIA.

NYT 26 Sep 73, p. 25, text of Malloy affidavit

Nixon's early political history and early political associates: Chotiner, Rogers, Haldeman, Stans, Kalmbach, "Weinberg" (Casper Weinberger?). Article is titled "Watergate should come as no surprise."

The Montclarion (Oakland, California), Bob Kahn, 9 May 73.
- Jack Anderson quotes Adlai Stevenson's description of "Nixonland" as a "land of slander and scare, of sly innuendo, of a poison pen, the anonymous phone call and hustling, pushing, shoving - the land of smash and grab and anything to win."

SFC 16 May 73, Jack Anderson - filed Nixon