

8 Jun 73

McCord asks Sirica to grant him a new trial, on the grounds that perjured testimony and the government's withholding of pertinent evidence denied him a fair trial; says he was enticed by high government officials into the Watergate operation and then a "massive obstruction of justice" denied him use of the enticement defense.

McCord was to have been sentenced 15 Jun. Today Sirica grants him an indefinite stay on sentencing.

WXP 9 Jun 73