Hunt appears in closed-door session of Senate Watergate committee, says Colson - about an hour after George Wallace was shot - ordered him to go to Milwaukee and burglarize Bremer's apartment. ~~did not go because he could not get there without carrying a high caliber handgun.~~ Denied by Colson 20 Jun 73; ~~he~~ points out that Hunt was under "great duress" during testimony because of altercation with cellmate the night before.

~~WXP 21 Jun 73~~

(Hunt's statement that Colson told him about an hour after Wallace shooting to go to Milwaukee would make this about 5 p.m.; Wallace was shot about 4 p.m.) Colson, 21 Jun, says he was in Nixon's quarters in old EOB 5 p to 9 p.m. and that call to Hunt was between 10:15 and 10:45 p.m. Hunt says after call from Colson ordering him to Milwaukee, he went home to Potomac, Md. It was in "apparently" (Woodward and Bernstein's word) a second phone conversation that Hunt told Colson that by the time he could get to Milwaukee Bremer's apartment would have been staked out by the FBI, making a successful burglary impossible.
