

26 June 1973 Witness John Wesley Dean III (2)

Material from Hunt's WH office - Roy Sheppard is apparently the man referred to by Peter Wolf (see entry under Wolf, 19 Apr 73) who removed eight cartons from White House 18 Jun 72. Sheppard's new lawyer, Ben Cotton, says Sheppard testified to Ervin committee and Watergate grand jury (no dates, but from context testimony before one or the other was given today) that he picked up at WX National Airport eight cartons, from a woman he now believes^{to be} from news photos - Mrs. Hunt.* Kept cartons at his home in Alexandria; did not open cartons until Nov 72, when he burned them, because no one had asked about them.

SFC 27 Jun 73

See also memo filed 27 Jun 73

*(No date, but was contacted "shortly after the Watergate break-in.")

See entries 19 Apr 73 (Wolf) and 22 Jul 73

Rebozo - From story on Dean's testimony today:

"Mr. Dean ... said [that] tax audits of Robert W. Greene, a Newsday (L.I.) reporter, had ... been ordered for political reasons by President Nixon's personal staff. Mr. Dean acknowledged that he had transmitted the instructions for a tax audit of Mr. Greene, ... who wrote a series of investigative articles in Oct., 1971, detailing President Nixon's financial dealings with his friend, Charles G. Rebozo. 'I got instructions,' Mr. Dean testified today, 'that one of the authors of that article should have some problems.' Mr. Greene commented this afternoon that he had received a 'clean bill' amonth after the audit began. "

NYT 27 Jun 73, Christopher Lydon

Nixon-Rebozo - See entry, Rebozo.

Haldeman family - Story datelined Newport Beach [Southern California] says the Haldemans have been located, "living on exclusive Harbor Island in a home estimated in value by neighbors at $800,000. Mrs. Haldeman is described as "startled" that newsmen have discovered their new address.

SFC 27 Jun 73 [AP]