Nixon - "The Agony and Loneliness of Richard Nixon."
Article based on intv (?) with person "who requested that his identity be withheld," who is described as "an old friend of the Nixons [who] recently asked if he could pay them a personal visit." Two-hour visit took place today. See story.

Examples: "[Mrs. Nixon] excused herself and headed for the garden where every day the former President and First Lady stroll hand in hand. Nixon looked lovingly at Pat .... " Nixon on Watergate: "I was so busy that I just didn't take the time to watch everybody. I never thought much about being loved. I just did the best I could."

Nixon's health: "With a slight limp [Nixon] strolled to the patio where a doctor was about to take [his] blood pressure. Nixon took off his gray checkered sports coat and rolled up the sleeves of his blue shirt. After downing two pills with a glass of water, he was told by the doctor that the medication wasn't working as well as expected."
