

22 Mar 75

"The White House Transcripts" is the title of a play given by inmates at Norfolk prison, Massachusetts. "The production got its start through Boston public relations man Thomas McCann, who had taped a similar version for television. He helped get permission for the convicts to do it, then loaned them the duplicate Oval Office set and the scripts." See story.

SFC 24 Mar 75

Nixon is visited by Mayor Charles Evers of Fayette, Miss, who went to San Clemente after addressing a group in Sacramento. Evers says 25 Mar that he had "nothing special to say" to Nixon; "I just wanted him to know he has friends." No indication of whether the visit was at Nixon's or Evers' request. AMP-A

"There was one room where he would point out a seat and say, "This is where Brezhnev sat, this is where Kissinger sat." Mr. Evers said. "I thought he would be wobbly, but at one point I had to ask him to slow down."

NYT 26 Mar 75, Notes on People, Laurie Johnston

Charles Evers - See entry, Nixon is visited

Nixon (physical health) - See entry, Nixon is visited

Ehrlichman is disbarred by Washington State Supreme Court. The action is the result of an agreement under which he must wait at least three years before applying for reinstatement.

SFC 26 Mar 75

(22 Mar 75) AMP

①- Evers and his former wife will go on trial 9 Jun will go on trial in Jackson, Miss., on charges of evading Federal income taxes; various counts of underpayment by some $50,000 between 1968 and 1970.

NYT 28 Mar 75, Notes on People

22-23 Mar 75

Haig "quietly flew home from his European post, had a weekend visit [22-23 Mar] with [Nixon] at his estate and has an appointment [27 Mar] with President Ford, it became known [26 Mar]. ... Sources close to the general said he flew unannounced last Friday [21 Mar] from his headquarters near Brussels and on to California, spending the night at a San Clemente motel." See entry 27 Mar, Haig sees Ford.

NYT 27 Mar 75, Notes on People

Nixon (Haig) - See entry, Haig "quietly flew ... "