News Summary and Index FRIDAY, MAY 10, 1974

The Major Events of the Day

Mr. Brandt did, according to a close associate. Aides also say that Mr. Schmidt; known as pro-American and an "Atlanticist," is also expected to work at easing the strains in the European Common Market, [1:1.] relations with the Communist countries than will place far less emphasis on developing successor as Chancellor of West Germany, Helmut Schmidt, Willy Brandt's expected

France nine days away, there is a major effort to attract Gaullist voters, who appear to be the key to the run-off. [2:4-5.] With the election of a new President of

but the vote is expected to produce another minority Government. [5:1.] Six years after he won a landslide victory, Mr. Trusition parties began the campaign for par-liamentary elections set for July 8 by pin-pointing inflation as the chief issue. Few a Parliamentary majority for his budget prodeau found himself unable to piece together enough to check it. [1:2-3.] opposition charges that he was not doing posals, partly because of the inflation and observers are willing to predict the results, the leaders of Canada's two principal oppo-Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau and capital, before winding up in Cairo. As an hour-by-hour account in a reporter's note-book reveals, the typical Kissinger day was Kissinger party, the day began in Jerusalem and included a stop in Riyadh, the Saudi endorsement from Saudi Arabia in his drive for an Israeli-Syrian military disengagement, then flew to Cairo to seek additional backing from Egypt. [9:1.] For the peripatetic busy one. [1:5-6. Secretary of State Kissinger received an

The House Judiciary Committee formally began its inquiry into the conduct of the President of the United States. After a brief public ceremony in which committee leaders session was devoted to a summary of events leading up to the Watergate burglary in June 1972. [1:7-8; Text, .P 16.] secret session to begin examining evidence asembled by its staff. The initial three-hour pledged to use the "awesome" impeachment power wisely, the committee reconvened in mount in his own party as the House minority leader, Representative John J. Rhodes Pressure against Mr. Nixon continued to > sider resigning and Representative John B. Anderson of Illinois, the chairman of the House Republican Conference, predicted that the President would be impeached if he did not resign. However, White House spokes-men said the President remained adamant against resigning—"even if hell freezes pver," as one put it. [1:5-6.] of Arizona, suggested that Mr. Nixon recon-versity audience in Illinois that a "grave situation" existed in the Government. [1:6.]

Democratic Representatives, their leaders American people have placed in their Government." In what some construed as Mr. Ford's harshest criticism of the Nixon Adof "corruption, malfeasance and wrong-doing" at the highest levels of Government were "hammer blows to the confidence the ministration, the Vice President told a uni-Vice President Ford said that disclosures members to a single committee, forcing many to give up choice assignments. The action sent the plan back to a bipartisan committee for reconsideration. [1:4.] cratic caucus appeared to doom the immediate prospects for passage of the plan, which, for the most part, would limit House for a sweeping reorganization of House committees. The 111-to-95 vote of the Demosharply divided, voted to sidetrack proposals six months, the Government reported: Nevertheless, the adjusted increase of 0.7 per cent left the important inflation indi-cator 18.8 per cent above April, 1973. [1:7-8.] slowed the increase in the over-all Whole-sale Price Index to its smallest advance in rise in April, but a drop in agriculture prices Industrial prices continued their rapid

Metropolitan

The Mayor, in turn, has been lobbying for the measure, citing the threatened loss of millions of dollars Con Ed pays the city in real-estate taxes. [1:2-3.] told Mayor Beame and a number of Demo-cratic legislators that the company faces rescue the utility is approved by the Legisbankruptcy unless a measure designed to ature before its scheduled recess this month. The chairman of Consolidated Edison has

Charges against four harness drivers accused of fixing superfecta races were dismissed by a Federal judge, who ruled that against eight other drivers remain. [1:5. developed sufficient evidence. the Government's eight-week case had not Charges

The Other News

International

Opposition denounces India for rail arrests. Page 11 Humphrey offers world Diplomacy not seen affecting Golan battle. Page 10 Portuguese unions to British strike offer known to seminar plan. Page 3 Strategic Studies analysts and sets vote. Page 2 Soviet Jewish scientists press Iceland dissolves legislature program. federation. Wilson. gloomy on détente. Page 3 Page Page 6 Page 4 Page 3 form

> Page 51 to con-Page 47

Government and Politics clash with police. Page 13

Spanish university students Pentagon argues case for new nerve gases. tagon officials.

Page 13

Soviet general assails Pen-

Page 12

Calls by Connally for friend Senate Watergate panel to Move to block tax break on on prices. Page 36 New Democratic Coalition recall Haig. Page 17
Senate rebuffs Administration Revised Wilson rent bill leans to Samuels. Page 60 Further financial disclosure A historic room is the site of reported. objected to. by Wilson urged. Page 60 Page 17

General

and himself. Paried exhibits at 74. nalism award, Page 42
News media gagged in Zebra case.
City recovers some Blue City recovers Shield funds. Rejected suitor kills woman Times reporter receives jour-Shubert fund directors refuse to step aside. Some Page 60 Page 18 Page 14 at Expo Page 22

Industry and Labor

Meany sees economic gain if Nixon resigns. Page 15 Education and Welfare Secret talks start in printers' Page 60

Lachman leaving Board of Education to teach. Page 44

Quarterly earnings up 654% at Genesco. Page 47 Ford predicts sharp rise on 1975 models. Page 47

Quotation of the Day

Peter W. Rodino Jr., chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, opening hearings on the impeachment of bility. We will faithfully live up to it."—Representative "We understand our high constitutional responsi-

costs surveyed. Page 45 Market up 14.78 points in a technical rally. Page 47
Shultz in Bechtel posts; Treasury aides named. Page 47
Loews loses round in bid for Robert Cutler, special aide to Eisenhower. Page 36 feathers. Page 43
Dining: Anyway, the first visit was fine. Page 43 Music of Ives, Helps and Thorne is played. Page 25 Paton's "Apartheid and Arch-bishop" reviewed. Page 31 People and Business: Power Business and Financial Going Out Guide Channel 13 seeks funds in 85 Film Forum presents "Spring Potpourri." Page 24 Strong Brazilian film of Obituaries Wrapped in a flutter of Family/Style About New York The Pop Life. Lincoln Center. Page 21
Whitney offers 7 short films in Erotic Cinema. Page 24 London's National "Nova," TV science series Choral Festival resounds in Parley focuses on Wiesel play gives voice to Study finds weather plays School board campaign leans to ethic issues. Page 44 Amusements and the Arts Health and Science often impressive. Page 63 sidewalk booths. misery arrives. Soviet Jews. President Nixon. [1:8.] marks 150 years. Page 20 mental health role. Page 18 regressions. Page 20 Page 22 Page 25 Gallery Page 24 Page 64 Page 20 Page 42 cancer Kite, Armstrong share lead in Houston golf. Page 29 Murphy's 74 wins medal in Richardson golf. Page 29 Burns eliminates Siderowf on Red Sox shortstop ends glee at Yankee woes. Page 27 Bruins dull fight pattern of Flyers. Page 27 Mets take aches and pains on Midwest swing. Page 27 3 winners provide Cordero belated gift. Page 3 Editorials and Comment Basketball merger possible by next season. Page 27
Red Sox short-to-Foreign Exch...52 Notes on People Roundup: 2e rrors by Braves help Cubs win. Page 28 Nets favored to win A.B.A. title tonight. Page 28 Sports Two utilities respond Shell Group profits up sharp-ly in quarter. Page 47 Domres refuses to hitch fu-ture to W.F.L. Stars. Page 27 Nastase is well-rested for People in Sport Hall adds two. appointment. North-South links. Page 29 title tonight. Dallas tennis. tract charges. Sports: Footbal Out-of-Town Over the Counter.

Page 28

Page 27

Page 42

Page 30

Jesuit editorial on Watergate Marshall McLuhan: the medium is morality. Page 35 Tom Wicker discusses strange James Reston views doubts Editorials and Letters. Page 34 on Nixon judgment. Page 35 excerpted. Page 35

News Analysis

Page 47

Clyde Farnsworth discusses Francis Clines looks at G.O.P. protectionism. Albany problems.