

News Summary and Index

NYTimes TUESDAY, JUNE 25, 1974 JUN 25 1974

The Major Events of the Day

International

Secretary of State Kissinger, at a news conference on the eve of President Nixon's departure for the Soviet Union, said that the United States and the Soviet Union were hoping to announce an agreement in principle for a limitation on underground nuclear tests at the meetings to be held by President Nixon and Leonid I. Brezhnev, the Soviet Communist party leader. But he said that he was uncertain how much headway would be made toward another accord limiting strategic arms. [1:8.] Mr. Kissinger also said at the press meeting that assertions that he negotiated secret arrangements in the missile-limitations agreement of 1972 between the United States and the Soviet Union were "totally false in every detail." However, Senator Henry M. Jackson, Democrat of Washington, continued to take issue with the Secretary's interpretation of the agreement. [1:3-4.]

Prime Minister Wilson announced that Britain's first nuclear bomb test in nine years was carried out "a few weeks ago" in Nevada. His announcement caused dismay and anger in the left-wing of his Labor party, which was also not satisfied with Mr. Wilson's explanation that the test was made under the Conservative Government. [1:7.]

After a Sudanese court earlier in the day had sentenced the eight Palestinian guerrillas who killed two American diplomats and a Belgian in a siege of the Saudi Arabian Embassy in Khartoum 15 months ago to life imprisonment, President Gaafar al-Nimeiry of the Sudan decided to hand them over to the Palestine Liberation Organization. General Nimrey's decision, reported by the Middle East News Agency, meant that the guerrillas will be freed promptly. [1:6.]

National

In an attempt to accelerate the impeachment inquiry, the House Judiciary Committee issued four—and what were described as its final—subpoenas for 49 more White House tape recordings and authorized President Nixon's defense counsel to begin presenting rebuttal evidence Thursday. A committee resolution permitting James D. St. Clair, Mr. Nixon's chief defense lawyer, to offer rebuttal evidence orally and in writing stipulated that it must be factual, not argumentative or interpretive. [1:1.]

The Other News

International

Cardinal's death in Paris opens church rift. Page 2
Ontario seen as key to Canadian race. Page 2
Solzhenitsyn gives terms for his return. Page 2
Italians rebuke American press for criticism. Page 3
Lebanon asks Arabs' help in air defense. Page 3
Tito makes first visit to West Germany. Page 3
Iran denies she plans nuclear weapons. Page 3
Case study in disillusion: U.S. aid to India. Page 6
Brezhnev at the crest of Soviet popularity. Page 15
Sakharov urges discussion of human rights. Page 16

Government and Politics

Hawaiian natives seek reparations for lands. Page 8
City sells its largest total in tax notes. Page 10
Beame tells Nixon aide city is short-changed. Page 12
Administration officials court Mayors. Page 12
Senate rejects tax plan in debt ceiling bill. Page 13
"Carnal knowledge" is ruled not obscene. Page 18
Jaworski alters tactics on "plumbers" trial. Page 22
Nixon backers concerned by "Stonewalling." Page 22
Court defers grand jury data ruling. Page 22
Connally call to Nixon on Jacobsen reported. Page 23
Colson says Nixon feared C.I.A. role. Page 24
New vote ordered in Iowa district. Page 27

Metropolitan

The Treasury Department announced that in the new fiscal year that starts Monday, New York State will get a $22-million increase in Federal revenue-sharing funds, bringing the state's annual share up to $690-million, the largest amount received by any of the states. The $22-million was part of a total of $32-million more in the funds announced by the Treasury for New York, New Jersey and Connecticut. [1:2-3.]

General

Many law-enforcement authorities believe that New York State's stringent new anti-drug laws have not measurably slowed the over-all flow of drugs or driven major narcotics dealers out of business. But they said that since last Sept. 1, when the laws became effective, there have been increasingly long sentences for addicts and small-scale pushers. [1:2.]

Quotation of the Day

"We do not foresee a quick end."—President Nixon, speaking about inflation. [9:6.]

Seminar debates nonmedical needs of the dying. Page 17
Periodic relicensing urged for doctors. Page 20
Amusements and the Arts
"Fragments of a Trilogy" is staged in Greek. Page 27
Israel Philharmonic yields to protests. Page 27
Broadway beset by economic troubles. Page 29
Picture-postcard show opens at Holstra. Page 33
Magnum's "An American Life" is reviewed. Page 41

Going Out Guide

Family/Style
Mini still reigns, but are its days numbered? Page 39
Ah, those other Paris restaurants. Page 39
Obituaries
1,500 policemen attend rites for slain lieutenant. Page 36
Augustus Giegengack, former Public Printer. Page 36
Still I Green of Bell Laboratories. Page 36
Business and Financial
Stock average shows slight gain of 0.94. Page 49
Senate approves emergency livestock loan bill. Page 49

Chicago

Chicago bank raises lending rate to 11.8%. Page 49
Pound and London stock prices drop. Page 49
Citizen, Peugeot announce merger plans. Page 49
Italy expects $10-billion payments deficit. Page 49
Common Market seeks voice in United Nations. Page 49
U.S. and Soviet leaders urge more trade. Page 49
Bethlehem Steel increases its prices. Page 49

Sports

Whimbedon picks advance: Gorman wins. Page 43
Mets win in 9th on two Cub errors. 4-2. Page 43
Peterson of Indians glad to be pitching. Page 43
Accipiter wins by a head as Aqueduct opens. Page 43
Ondine, Tempest set records in Bermuda race. Page 43
Courageous, Intrepid do well in Cup yacht trials. Page 43
Texas judge says W.F.L. can recruit cowboys. Page 43
Walter Johnson's fastball still has them talking. Page 44
People in Sports: Julia, to "sell" Olympics. Page 45
New powers emerging in World Cup soccer. Page 46
Queens Tennisport: River view, 30 courts. Page 46

Notes on People

Editorials and Comment
Editorials and Letters. Page 34
Tom Wicker views Watergate plea bargaining. Page 35
Russell Baker reports on his critical mail. Page 35
Graham Hovey on Brazil as the Latin U.S. Page 35
William Styron recounts visit to Auschwitz. Page 35

More from abroad

The New York Times staff of foreign correspondents—largest of any newspaper—keeps you alert to the social and economic trends abroad as well as the major news of diplomacy and government.

William Robbins examines the nation of... Page 92