

News Summary and Index

NYTimes FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1974 SEP 20 1974

The Major Events of the Day

International

Intelligence sources in Washington disclosed that the Central Intelligence Agency secretly subsidized striking labor unions and trade groups in Chile for more than 18 months before Salvador Allende Gossens was overthrown. The C.I.A., the sources said, heavily subsidized the organizers of a nationwide truck strike in the fall of 1972 that disrupted Chile's economy. [1:1-2.]

Secretary of State Kissinger strongly defended the policy of the Nixon and Ford Administrations in pursuing better relations with Moscow in a long, mainly philosophical, statement on Soviet-American relations before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. He said that reduction of tensions between the two countries had opened the way for a much broader East-West collaboration in meeting such crucial international problems as food, energy and the protection of the environment. [1:3.]

National

Former President Nixon has been subpoenaed by the special Watergate prosecutor, Leon Jaworski, to appear at the Watergate cover-up trial. A spokesman for the special prosecutor said the subpoena was delivered Wednesday night to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, which has been asked to serve it at Mr. Nixon's San Clemente estate. This was the second time that Mr. Nixon has been subpoenaed to appear at the trial. The first subpoena was served on behalf of John D. Ehrlichman, who wants Mr. Nixon as a defense witness. [1:8.]

President Ford lost his first test with Congress. The Senate, voting 64 to 35, rejected his proposal to delay for the three months a 5.52 per cent pay increase for about 3.6 million Federal employees. The increase will take effect on Oct. 1, as scheduled. Mr. Ford proposed to delay the increase in an effort to fight inflation. [1:7.]

Vice President-designate Nelson A. Rockefeller revised the estimate of his net worth from $33-million to $67.5-million, including that of his wife, in addition to the income from two trusts worth $120-million. He said he was acting to counter "incomplete and therefore misleading data" leaked to the press. [1:5-6.]

The Administration sponsors of a conference in Washington on ways to fight inflation in social services agencies were criticized by delegates representing labor, religious, consumer, charitable and minority groups, who said that the meeting was being used to justify cuts in the nation's social programs. Alan Greenspan, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisors, was booed and jeered. [1:4-6.]

Supporters of a bill that would establish a national consumer protection agency failed for the fourth time since it was introduced in the Senate to break a conservative filibuster against it. The vote was 64 to 34, two short of the two-thirds majority needed to cut off debate on the bill, which may be shelved. [1:4.]

Members of the House Ways and Means Committee, which originates all tax legislation, are getting large contributions from special interests that are trying to preserve or increase the favored treatment they now receive under the tax laws. The biggest contributors are the oil and gas industry, the real estate business and the securities industry. [1:1-2.]

Metropolitan

Frank Bosco, the white police officer who shot and killed a 14-year-old black boy in Brooklyn last Sunday night, was relieved of police duties and stripped of his firearms as city officials and community leaders sought to end the nightly disorders that have wracked the streets of Brownsville. The strictures against Officer Bosco were just short of a full suspension. [1:4-5.]

A mistrial was declared in the Federal campaign fraud conspiracy trial of Joseph M. McCrane, the former New Jersey State Treasurer, by Judge Lawrence A. Whipple in Federal District Court in Newark. He said "there was a serious question whether this defendant could receive a fair and impartial trial" after he had questioned a number of jurors about their exposure to publicity concerning the case. [41:2-5.]

Mayor Beame announced plans to restore and strengthen the residential and commercial area of Little Italy on the Lower East Side. Among the proposals are the conversion of the former police headquarters on Centre Street into an Italo-American culture center, and making part of Mulberry Street a pedestrian mall. [1:1-4.]

The Other News

International

Civilian support uncertain for Ethiopian regime. Page 2
Tokyo and Seoul formally end their dispute. Page 3
Vietnam truce unit is facing a budgetary crisis. Page 3
U.N. appeals for aid for Cyprus refugees. Page 3
Senate asks Ford to stop aid to Turkey. Page 4
Freed pilot describes captivity in Laos. Page 4
Arabs see threat in Ford's U.N. speech. Page 5
Shah of Iran begins Asian tour in Singapore. Page 6
Ford, Kissinger brief Congressmen on C.I.A. Page 11
Soviet scientists concerned over Jackson deal. Page 18
Changes in weapons outpace nuclear race. Page 19
Stennis denies U.S. Navy falls behind. Page 19
Two slain in new Argentine kidnapping. Page 19

Government and Politics

Amnesty policy may omit "alien" deserters. Page 17
Hunt says he offered to talk before election. Page 22
Goodman and Mrs. Davidson similar opponents. Page 46
15 major groups urge public-service jobs. Page 48
Parade of witnesses backs ombudsman bill. Page 71
U.S. grant fosters regional planning here. Page 71

General

Police drive into riotous Brownsville crowd. Page 20
Moon's posters removed as promised. Page 40
Racial fighting erupts at Boston high school. Page 40
Metropolitan Briefs. Page 41
Four plead not guilty in Fort Lee case. Page 41
L.I. D.A. to write letters for cleared suspects. Page 41
East Side water-steam blast raises havoc. Page 41
Transportation leaders meet on inflation. Page 48
Board refers tower project to city planners. Page 68

Industry and Labor

5-point plan urged for housing here. Page 68

Quotation of the Day

"New York is not a melting pot. That concept does us a disservice. We are a conglomeration of many ethnic groups, each with its own habits and interests, that have accommodated themselves to one another. That's really our strength."—Percy E. Sutton, Manhattan borough president, speaking of ethnic neighborhoods. [68:3.]

Health and Science

Unions to challenge Federal asbestos standards. Page 8
Oral diabetes drugs said to be overused. Page 9
Scientist doubts major Coast quake soon. Page 67
City capital hospital budget cut 40 per cent. Page 68

Religion

In Iran, fasting of Ramadan is relaxed. Page 7

Amusements and the Arts
F.C.C. fails first time to renew license. Page 1
St. Louis seeks to sell Bing-ham sketches. Page 30
"Minamata," film on industrial disease, opens. Page 30

The Pop Life. Page 31
"Kashima Paradise," documentary, opens. Page 31
"Promised Land" is screened here commercially. Page 32
Fellini at his best in new film, "Amarcord." Page 32
"The Lieutenant," rock musical, in Queens. Page 35
"History Preserved," guide to city's landmarks. Page 43
Kishner begins new season of TV rock. Page 69

Going Out Guide Page 32
About New York Page 35

Family/Style
Boots have changed—especially in price. Page 47
Dog care center has an enviable menu. Page 47
A Rumanian restaurant is tried. Page 47

Obituaries
Dr. Frederick Younkman, developed tranquilizer. Page 40

Business and Financial
People and Business: Switch at Chamption. Page 48
Finance leaders cautious on easing by Fed. Page 51
Fed moves spur prices of Treasury bills. Page 51

Notes on People Page 46
Editorials and Comment
Editorials and Letters. Page 38
Tom Wicker queries Ford's stance on Chile. Page 39
William Shannon on British election outlook. Page 39
Barbara Tuchman on deficits of the Presidency. Page 39
Philip Hauser proposes urban bill of rights. Page 39

Sports
Racing season here extended until Jan. 4. Page 23
Yanks doing well, but Orioles are doing better. Page 23
Ambro Omaha takes Little Brown Jug. Page 23
Frazier finds bunch of new faces on Knicks. Page 23
International pro basketball league formed. Page 23
Garrett, Texas coach, is suspended by W.F.L. Page 23
People in Sports: Harraway gets W.F.L. job. Page 25
Season appears to be over for ailing Seaver. Page 26

Advertising News. 59
Amer. Exchange. 57
Bond Sales. 55
Business Briefs. 55
Commodities. 50
Dividends. 56
Foreign Exchange. 55
Gains. 50

Market Averages. 56
Market Place. 52
Mutual Funds. 49
N.Y. Stock Exch. 52
Out-of-Town. 56
Over the Counter. 49

Ford is seen near an inflation plan. Page 51
Eckstein sees no upturn for 12 months. Page 51
Cost-cutting seen needed for Pan Am. Page 51
About Real Estate: modernity hits a village. Page 61

Health and Science
Unions to challenge Federal asbestos standards. Page 8
Oral diabetes drugs said to be overused. Page 9
Scientist doubts major Coast quake soon. Page 67
City capital hospital budget cut 40 per cent. Page 68

Religion
In Iran, fasting of Ramadan is relaxed. Page 7

Amusements and the Arts
F.C.C. fails first time to renew license. Page 1
St. Louis seeks to sell Bing-ham sketches. Page 30
"Minamata," film on industrial disease, opens. Page 30

The Pop Life. Page 31
"Kashima Paradise," documentary, opens. Page 31
"Promised Land" is screened here commercially. Page 32
Fellini at his best in new film, "Amarcord." Page 32
"The Lieutenant," rock musical, in Queens. Page 35
"History Preserved," guide to city's landmarks. Page 43
Kishner begins new season of TV rock. Page 69

CORRECTION

An article in The New York Times yesterday incorrectly identified the photographer of the motion picture "Antonia: A Portrait of the Woman." He is Coulter Watt.