

News Summary and Index

NY Times MONDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1974 OCT 21 1974

The Major Events of the Day

International

Mexico's President, Luis Echeverria Alvarez, will give top priority to seeking a solution to the problem of illegal Mexican migrants in the United States when he meets with President Ford at the Arizona border, Mexican authorities say. Reports from Mexico City indicate that it would like an agreement permitting a fixed number of Mexican farm workers to enter the United States to work during the fruit-picking season. Congress, under pressure from the labor movement, is reported opposed to such an agreement. [Page One, Columns 1-2.]

More disorders were reported from Saigon where youthful anti-Government demonstrators overran a thin-manned police barricade and stoned the National Assembly building. Earlier the demonstrators burned a police vehicle, tore down Government posters and brandished photographs of President Nguyen Van Thieu, each with a black cross-mark over the President's portrait. [1:3.]

The Swiss have rejected by a substantial margin a proposal that would have meant deporting half of the country's 1.1-million foreigners, including 300,000 immigrant workers, in the next three years. The proposal lost, 66 per cent against and 34 per cent for. [1:1.]

National

Leon Jaworski, the special prosecutor, said he believed that the full story of former President Nixon's role in the Watergate cover-up would come out during the current trial of Mr. Nixon's former top aides. He predicted that most of the White House tapes he obtained through a Supreme Court decision would be made public at the trial. [1:8.]

As the Watergate cover-up conspiracy trial resumes in Washington, it is expected that another reel of tape will be played in the courtroom, with the voice of former President Richard M. Nixon discussing problems facing the cover-up, including the problem of Judge John J. Sirica, who is presiding at the current trial. Mr. Nixon, on the tape, expresses fears that the judge may try anew to unravel the cover-up. [1:7.]

President Ford has indicated that some conservative Republicans have urged him to abandon Vice President-designate Nelson A. Rockefeller, but says he has not taken the advice seriously. "I'm still convinced the would make a good Vice President," Mr. Ford said of Mr. Rockefeller. [1:4-5.]

An unannounced Justice Department decision that gives the Federal Bureau of Investigation tentative approval to begin enlarging its communications system has been denounced by the acting director of the White House Office of Telecommunications Policy, John M. Eger, the acting director, said he feared the Justice Department decision "could result in the absorption of state and local criminal data systems into a potentially abusive, centralized, federally controlled information system." [1:6.]

For Boston's black community the controversy over court-ordered busing as part of a school integration plan is just one more step after years of struggle for better schooling. Fear on the part of parents sending their children into hostile white neighborhoods is mingled with almost desperate hopes that the only way to improve black schools is to have whites in them. [1:5-7.]

Metropolitan

In the state gubernatorial campaign, Governor Wilson says a victory for Representative Hugh L. Carey, his Democratic opponent, would bring an administration to Albany that "would destroy the state government." Mr. Wilson said it would be "like putting Dracula in charge of a blood bank." Meanwhile, Mr. Carey said if he were elected he would ask the State Legislature to undertake the same type of investigation into Dr. William J. Ronan's gifts from Nelson A. Rockefeller that the New Jersey Legislature plans to pursue. If Dr. Ronan does not cooperate with the inquiry, Mr. Carey said, his tenure as chairman of the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey "will be in extreme peril." [1:2-3.]

New York police investigating the massacre of six persons in a small neighborhood bakery shop say they have slim clues to work on and appealed for information that might lead them to the killers. Aside from ballistics data on the shotgun and two handguns used by the slayers, the police say they have little to go on. The victims, who included the shop's owner, a woman clerk and four customers, all died of head wounds and were robbed by their executioners, who also took the contents of the cash register before fleeing. [1: 6.]

The Other News

International

Portuguese leader reaffirms ties with U.S. Page 3
 Peru newspapers observe limits of dissent. Page 3
 U.S. to begin talks with Spain on bases. Page 4
 First U.S. diplomat arrives in East Berlin. Page 6

Renewed coalition eludes Italian leaders. Page 7
 Mali official accuses Niger on refugees. Page 9
 Notes on China: After Mao who? Page 12
 Israelis deny oil assurances from U.S. Page 16

Government and Politics

5 Pentagon dining rooms cost $1-million annually. Page 14
 Saxhe backs F.B.I. detentions in Hiss case record. Page 22
 Abrams asks inquiry on Rockefeller gifts. Page 24
 Levitt not taking re-election for granted. Page 25
 Ottinger, Stephens vie for Redd Congress seat. Page 26
 G.O.P. lists city as foe in state race. Page 26
 Traditional rivalries recur in Michigan races. Page 27
 Democrats expected to gain in ethnic groups. Page 27
 Court likely to review death penalty again. Page 60

General
 Study sees benefit in national grain reserve. Page 28
 Shellfish a declining livelihood at Cape Cod. Page 28
 Brooklyn cabbies' taxi stars in films. Page 31
 Metropolitan Briefs. Page 35
 Medical schools have shortage of cadavers. Page 35
 Man killed going to aid mugged neighbor. Page 35
 Conventions brought $400-million here in '73. Page 35
 Politicians help nursing-home builders. Page 35
 Two gunmen rob 15 rape a woman. Page 35

Education and Welfare
 Fordham president explains possible move. Page 30
 Decline in minority opportunity seen. Page 40

Quotation of the Day

"I believe by the time the trial that is now in progress has completely unfolded, together with the evidence that has already been mentioned by the House Judiciary Committee in its report, I think you are going to have the story of Watergate and Mr. Nixon's involvement in Watergate."—Leon Jaworski, the special Watergate prosecutor. [1:8.]

Amusements and the Arts

"The Last Days of Louisiana Red" reviewed. Page 37
 "Crazy World of Julius Woodard" screened. Page 48
 "Phase IV," arts saga, on local screens. Page 48
 New World Symphony in Solti performance. Page 48
 Kamin are confident of "Dreyfus." Page 48
 Brooklyn College musicians salutes Ives. Page 50
 Sculpture reproduction, a rising battle. Page 50
 Three dancers and a reader do "Chapter One." Page 51
 "Gay" on TV looks at racial prejudice. Page 59

Going Out Guide

About New York Page 31
 Family/Style
 Wife heaters rarely are prosecuted. Page 38
 Fanciful new furniture imported from Europe. Page 39
Obituaries
 Julien Bryan, maker of film documentaries. Page 34
Business and Financial
 Bankers confident danger of a run is past. Page 53
 Declining output is expected for textiles. Page 53
 Issue and Debater: Exports of coal. Page 53

Capital squeeze grips British companies. Page 53
 Fed apparently moving toward easing credit. Page 53
 Lucrative Polish trade lures U.S. businessmen. Page 53
 Personal Finance: Costs of checking accounts. Page 53
 Monterey Group viewed as family of power. Page 53

Sports

Foyt wins Pocono race, leads in auto series. Page 40
 Colts finally win one as Jets bow. 35-20. Page 41
 Jurgen's passes defeat Giants, 24-3. Page 41
 Bills send Patriots to first loss, 30-28. Page 41
 Dark has prayers answered by the A's. Page 41
 Diehl takes Texas open by one stroke. Page 41
 Ranger sextet faces Canucks at Garden rink. Page 41
 Ohio State, Oklahoma again win impressively. Page 42
 Lions upset Vikings in 500th N.F.L. game. Page 43
 Olympic delegates set to hit at hypocrisy. Page 44
 Miss Goolagong beats Miss Evert in final. Page 44
Woman in the News
 Françoise Giroud, French Cabinet member. Page 18
Editorials and Comment
 Editorials and Letters Page 32
 Anthony Lewis discusses papers and the public. Page 33
 William Safire contrasts Pillate and Ford. Page 33
 Edward M. Kennedy sees time for a change. Page 33
 Eugene V. Rostow deplors a Western nonpolicy. Page 33
News Analysis
 Hedrick Smith assesses Soviet viet emigration. Page 1

Page 1
 Page 2
 Page 3
 Page 4
 Page 5
 Page 6
 Page 7
 Page 8
 Page 9
 Page 10
 Page 11
 Page 12
 Page 13
 Page 14
 Page 15
 Page 16
 Page 17
 Page 18
 Page 19
 Page 20
 Page 21
 Page 22
 Page 23
 Page 24
 Page 25
 Page 26
 Page 27
 Page 28
 Page 29
 Page 30
 Page 31
 Page 32
 Page 33
 Page 34
 Page 35
 Page 36
 Page 37
 Page 38
 Page 39
 Page 40
 Page 41
 Page 42
 Page 43
 Page 44
 Page 45
 Page 46
 Page 47
 Page 48
 Page 49
 Page 50
 Page 51
 Page 52
 Page 53
 Page 54
 Page 55
 Page 56
 Page 57
 Page 58
 Page 59
 Page 60