

News Summary and Index

NYTimes

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1974

OCT 23 1974

The Major Events of the Day

International

The Canadian Government announced tighter regulations for new immigrants. They are designed to make entry more difficult for the prospective settler who does not have a job waiting for him. The principal impact is expected to be on the flow of nonwhite immigrants. The Government has been concerned over steeply rising numbers and changing racial patterns in the flow of immigrants. [Page 1, Column 4.]

Mikhail A. Suslov, chief ideologist of the Soviet Union, told a Tashkent audience that the economic crisis in the West had strengthened Communist and other leftist parties in a number of countries. Domestically, he mentioned "quite a few shortcomings" in the economy and lingering nationalist influences in the republics. [13:1.]

A Palestinian delegate, Farkh Kaddoumi, made the only speech from the floor before a meeting in Rabat of Arab League foreign ministers went into closed-door sessions to prepare a conference of Arab leaders. Mr. Kaddoumi stressed the Palestinian right to set up an "independent authority" on the West Bank of the Jordan River, disputing Jordan's position on this issue. [6:1.]

National

The adjusted Consumer Price Index rose 1.2 per cent in September. Food led the way with 1.9 per cent, while other commodities showed their smallest increases of the year. The index reached 151.9 per cent of average prices in the base year 1967, according to the Labor Department. "Real" spendable earnings of typical workers rose slightly after adjustment. [1:8.]

President Ford contended in a political speech in Oklahoma City that a wide Democratic margin in Congress after the Nov. 5 election would threaten chances for a bipartisan foreign policy and could jeopardize peace. But Republican leaders in cities he visited in a two-day swing acknowledged that he had not stirred the enthusiasm they sought to help faltering Republican candidates. [1:5.]

John W. Dean 3d, testifying under cross-examination in the Watergate cover-up trial, admitted that he had withheld damaging information for many months after he said he had told the authorities everything he knew. He acknowledged concealing his destruction of two notebooks. E. E. Howard Hunt Jr. The

THE MAJOR EVENTS OF THE DAY

International
Tanaka acknowledges private business interests. Page 3
Japanese castle town glad industry bypassed it. Page 3
Opposition to Thieu strong. Page 4
Saigon is said to arrest 14 students. Page 5
Ex-envoy to Chile describes malicious leaks. Page 7
Toll put at 49 in Mozambique violence. Page 8
Angolans see their land at crucial crossroads. Page 9
Lisbon prepares rules for free election. Page 12
Vast food potential seen in Mideast. Page 16

Government and Politics
Muskie disputes Ford on economic problems. Page 20
Forced kickbacks charged by Nassau employees. Page 28
G.O.P. Assembly candidate assails Wilson. Page 30
Wilson faults Carey on environment issues. Page 33
Jayvis gets C.I.A. tapes on Clark in Hanoi. Page 33
Public utilities issue in Connecticut campaign. Page 33
Maryland campaigns produce little debate. Page 34
Maworski tells of early hint on Nixon. Page 48

Energy
Gasoline rationing suggested by Quarles. Page 20
General
Year's cost rise here is highest since 1947. Page 25
Warrants are issued in burning of newspaper. Page 26
Ray alleges violation of rights in jail. Page 27
Mental patient sought in psychologist's murder. Page 28
Dynamite damages school in textbook dispute. Page 30
Metropolitan Briefs. Page 47
U.S. aide sides with Roman in PATH dispute. Page 47
Beame says city's credit position is strong. Page 47
11 indicted in gambling-related bribes. Page 47
Tips pouring in on New Britain mass murder. Page 47
Two trackmen killed by IRT wor train. Page 81

Religion
Synod of Bishops rejects most of it. Page 10
Vatican forms panels on Judaism and Islam. Page 11
Arts and the Arts
Art dealers court Arab markets. Page 36
New gallery added by Carnegie Institute. Page 36
Abbado leads Philadelphians in Russian evening. Page 40
"Angela Davis," a review of the autobiography. Page 49
Today's "ABC-TV's "After-school" is sturdy. Page 83

Quotation of the Day
"Today, alone, I had requests for detailed information on multiple subjects from as many as seven reporters from a single publication." — Nelson A. Rockefeller, declaring he would answer no further questions until his appearance before Congressional committees. [1:1.]

Health and Science
Thirteenth moon of Jupiter called likely. Page 19
Final noise level rules for trucks issued. Page 20

Education and Welfare
Four arrested as they try to enter P.S. 34. Page 60
Kent State jury tentatively seated. Page 81

Business and Finance
Business contributors to N.Y. State candidates. Page 1
Stocks close mixed as trading rises. Page 63
Corporations' plans for debt expand. Page 63
Exxon and Gulf report high earnings. Page 63

Sports
Yanks trade Munceer to Giants for Bobby Bonds. Page 53
Clines of Pirates is sent to Mets for Dyer. Page 53
Giants get Morton and deal Snead to 49ers. Page 53
Moscow favored to gain 1980 Summer Olympics. Page 53
Turotte replaced by Pigott as Dahlia's rider. Page 54
Rams in best spot among 11 playoff contenders. Page 56
The old order is restored in Ivy football. Page 56
People in Sports: Carter ends 76ers holdout. Page 59
Asha is beaten, Gottfried wins in tennis. Page 59

Notes on People Page 51
Editorials and Comment
Editorials and Letters. Page 44
James Reston, on population and voter shifts. Page 45
C. L. Sulzberger on Israeli intelligence reform. Page 45
Robert Wager discusses food-price spiral. Page 45
Stephen Barnett fears air-wave monopoly. Page 45

News Analysis
Paul Goldberger on a new Minneapolis hall. Page 38
Gene I. Maroff assesses school integration. Page 60
Leonard Silk on homebuilders' problems. Page 63

Issue and Debate
Should the C.I.A. bring home its spies? Page 2