

News Summary and Index

NYTimes SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1974 NOV 2 1974

The Major Events of the Day

International

In the wake of violent clashes between anti-Government demonstrators and the police in Saigon, several Opposition leaders denounced President Nguyen Van Thieu and Mr. Thieu assailed his domestic opponents as lackeys of the Communists. Duong Van Minh, a retired general about whom sections of the Opposition are rallying, said in a statement that Mr. Thieu's Government was "a regime that has completely lost the confidence of the people." [Page 1, Cols. 1-2.]

Turkish Cypriotes are resettling in a large section of Cyprus occupied last summer by the Turkish army. One of the key questions about the future of Cyprus is whether the Greek Cypriote refugees who fled the Turkish invasion will be allowed to return to their homes. Thousands of Greek-owned houses, farms and businesses have already been taken over by Turkish Cypriotes who have moved into the occupied areas. [1:1-2.]

Alberto Villar, Argentina's federal police chief, and his wife were killed when a bomb blew their cabin cruiser 30 feet out of the water. He was Argentina's equivalent of the director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and was widely dreaded, even by his own men, for his harsh tactics. [1:3.]

National

Unemployment, increasing to 6 per cent. of the work force in October, was at its highest level in nearly three years. Labor Department figures indicated that there were fewer jobs in October for virtually every work group. The unemployment rate for adult white males, the group least prone to unemployment, rose to 3.9 per cent from 3.5 per cent. This was regarded as a very large increase for a single month. [1:8.]

President Ford interrupted a political trip on the West Coast to visit former President Nixon in the intensive care section of Memorial Hospital Medical Center in Long Beach, Calif. Mr. Ford stayed eight minutes with the former President, and said afterward that "it was very obvious to me that he has been very, very ill." He also said that he gave Mr. Nixon a briefing on Secretary of State Kissinger's current diplomatic trip abroad. [1:6-7.]

"We can't get rid of this burden," said a campaign aide to Houston I. Flournoy, the Republican candidate for the California governorship, when it became apparent that

The Other News

International

Talk of Gambia: Africa's smallest country. Page 2
Souvanna Phouma welcomed back to Laos. Page 2

Uster fears bankruptcy of British policy. Page 3
Montagnard uprising may persist. Page 4
Palestinians plan appeal to the United Nations. Page 8
Paton views South Africa after U.N. action. Page 8
Prosecution of Papadopoulos ordered in Athens. Page 9
U.S. studying arms sales to Saudi Arabia. Page 9
Kissinger meets Shah on oil price issue. Page 9

Government and Politics
McGovern raises $1-million for his campaign. Page 12
Milkken periled by inquiry on aide. Page 12
Mixed bag offered voters in Pennsylvania. Page 12
Georgia Republicans heading for rout. Page 12
Three candidates for U.S. Senate cover state. Page 13
Peyser's record a major campaign issue. Page 14
A confident Rodino campaigns for others. Page 14
Wilson charges Carey dissenters. Page 14
Wilson aides hint Carey loan violated law. Page 14
Magruder lays plot to cover-up defendants. Page 15
Puerto Rican assails U.S. on "repression." Page 16

Energy
Morton holds up plan to equalize oil prices. Page 48

General
Ray's attorney calls him a racist. Page 11
Metropolitan Briefs. Page 33
Funerals held for two five-men here. Page 33
3 Bronx youths indicted in murder of woman. Page 33
Anker plans shake-up of the Bureau of Audit. Page 33
Most cab riders biased about fare rise. Page 36
Eminent jurists convene to honor Kaufman. Page 36
Food chain defends meat price rises. Page 48

Health and Science
Glass microspheres used in fusion tests. Page 32
Aerosol industry doubts threat to ozone. Page 47

Amusements and the Arts
"Open Season" arrives on local screens. Page 16
"Amazing Grace," Moms Mabrey film, opens. Page 16
"Phantom of the Paradise" at Trans-Lux. Page 16
Monumental Roy Lichtenstein paintings shown. Page 24
Retrospective of de Cretet sculpture on view. Page 25
Bartheleme's "Gully Pleasures" reviewed. Page 27
Going Out Guide. Page 17

Family/Style
Women: police officers face jealousy problem. Page 34
American wines are steadily improving. Page 34

Obituaries
Baroness Moura Budberg, literary figure. Page 32
Rudolf Smutny, an investment banker. Page 32
M. J. B. Ezekiel, economist for the Government. Page 32

Business and Financial
Citibank cuts prime rate to 10 1/2 per cent. Page 37
Prices of sugar and gasoline are increased. Page 37
Amerada Hess begins closing of N.J. refinery. Page 37
Ford Motor lays off 12,000 for week. Page 37

Patents: Ultrasonic motor has high efficiency. Page 37
People and Business: Inflation tied to output. Page 41

Markets
Amer. Exchange. Page 42
Bond Sales. Page 41
Business Briefs. Page 36
Commodities. Page 42
Dividends. Page 42
Foreign Exchange. Page 41
Grains. Page 38
Over-the-Counter. Page 42

Sports
Porter-Zender team gains tie for golf lead. Page 19
Pacers or Knicks? McGinnis ponders choice. Page 19

Quotation of the Day

"The city is full of people telling you what to do."
—Margaret Stern, a smoker for 50 of her 70 years, on the first day of the ban on smoking in public places here. [This page, column 3.]

Frazier: eye is better but the scare remains. Page 19
Amateur athletes are fleeing the big cities. Page 19
All: gets champion's welcome in Chicago. Page 19
Women jockeys guide daily double winners. Page 19
Amritraj brothers won't play for India again. Page 19
Florida to test Auburn, Maryland vs. Penn St. Page 20
Success story of Islanders is no myth. Page 21
10 horses in Messenger Pace train lightly. Page 21
U.S. amateurs lead World golf by 7 strokes. Page 22
People in Sports: Stars get Brown of Sounds. Page 23
Chiefs are playing it cozy with quarterbacks. Page 23

Notes on People Page 35
Editorials and Comment
Editorials and Letters. Page 28
C. L. Sulzberger views NATO airplane stakes. Page 29
Russell Baker on the Vice-Presidential probe. Page 29
Endangered wildlife. Page 29

Business and Financial
Citibank cuts prime rate to 10 1/2 per cent. Page 37
Prices of sugar and gasoline are increased. Page 37
Amerada Hess begins closing of N.J. refinery. Page 37
Ford Motor lays off 12,000 for week. Page 37

Patents: Ultrasonic motor has high efficiency. Page 37
People and Business: Inflation tied to output. Page 41

Markets
Amer. Exchange. Page 42
Bond Sales. Page 41
Business Briefs. Page 36
Commodities. Page 42
Dividends. Page 42
Foreign Exchange. Page 41
Grains. Page 38
Over-the-Counter. Page 42

Sports
Porter-Zender team gains tie for golf lead. Page 19
Pacers or Knicks? McGinnis ponders choice. Page 19

Health and Science
Glass microspheres used in fusion tests. Page 32
Aerosol industry doubts threat to ozone. Page 47

Amusements and the Arts
"Open Season" arrives on local screens. Page 16
"Amazing Grace," Moms Mabrey film, opens. Page 16
"Phantom of the Paradise" at Trans-Lux. Page 16
Monumental Roy Lichtenstein paintings shown. Page 24
Retrospective of de Cretet sculpture on view. Page 25
Bartheleme's "Gully Pleasures" reviewed. Page 27
Going Out Guide. Page 17

Family/Style
Women: police officers face jealousy problem. Page 34
American wines are steadily improving. Page 34

Obituaries
Baroness Moura Budberg, literary figure. Page 32
Rudolf Smutny, an investment banker. Page 32
M. J. B. Ezekiel, economist for the Government. Page 32

Business and Financial
Citibank cuts prime rate to 10 1/2 per cent. Page 37
Prices of sugar and gasoline are increased. Page 37
Amerada Hess begins closing of N.J. refinery. Page 37
Ford Motor lays off 12,000 for week. Page 37

Patents: Ultrasonic motor has high efficiency. Page 37
People and Business: Inflation tied to output. Page 41

Markets
Amer. Exchange. Page 42
Bond Sales. Page 41
Business Briefs. Page 36
Commodities. Page 42
Dividends. Page 42
Foreign Exchange. Page 41
Grains. Page 38
Over-the-Counter. Page 42

Sports
Porter-Zender team gains tie for golf lead. Page 19
Pacers or Knicks? McGinnis ponders choice. Page 19

Health and Science
Glass microspheres used in fusion tests. Page 32
Aerosol industry doubts threat to ozone. Page 47

Amusements and the Arts
"Open Season" arrives on local screens. Page 16
"Amazing Grace," Moms Mabrey film, opens. Page 16
"Phantom of the Paradise" at Trans-Lux. Page 16
Monumental Roy Lichtenstein paintings shown. Page 24
Retrospective of de Cretet sculpture on view. Page 25
Bartheleme's "Gully Pleasures" reviewed. Page 27
Going Out Guide. Page 17

Family/Style
Women: police officers face jealousy problem. Page 34
American wines are steadily improving. Page 34

Obituaries
Baroness Moura Budberg, literary figure. Page 32
Rudolf Smutny, an investment banker. Page 32
M. J. B. Ezekiel, economist for the Government. Page 32

Business and Financial
Citibank cuts prime rate to 10 1/2 per cent. Page 37
Prices of sugar and gasoline are increased. Page 37
Amerada Hess begins closing of N.J. refinery. Page 37
Ford Motor lays off 12,000 for week. Page 37

CORRECTIONS

In an article on Vice President-designate Nelson A. Rockefeller in The New York Times on Thursday, a lawyer on the Rockefeller family staff was identified incorrectly as Michael F. Orr. The lawyer on the Rockefeller staff is Robert Orr. Michael F. Orr, a New York lawyer, is not associated with the Rockefeller family and is not related to Robert Orr.

It was erroneously reported yesterday that Lena Horne and Tony Bennett would be performing at the Minskoff Theater through next Wednesday. Their engagement is scheduled to continue through Nov. 17.