The Major Events of the Day

International

tivities there on behalf of the North Atlantic agreements had "lost their legal validity." The air base at Incirlik in southern Turkey to Turkey. Ankara said existing joint defense approve the resumption of arms shipments terday that it would halt virtually all activi-Treaty Organization. [Page 1, Column 8.] specified that it would allow only defense acwas excepted from the order, but Ankara United States House of Representatives to in retaliation for the refusal Thursday by the Turkey starting today. The action was taken ties at American military installations in Turkish Government announced yes-

these damaging developments, I urge the House of Representatives to reconsider men soon after the announcement was made in Ankara, Mr. Ford said that "in view of lationship." [1:6-7.] the House of Representatives to reverse it-Turkey. In a statement that he read to news-President Ford said it was "essential" for lift the arms embargo against States-Turkish defense reto restore the tradition-had agreed on the country's need for strong political direction." [1:5-7.] Movement said Otelo Saraiva de Carvalho, the head of the internal security force. The Armed Forces Costa Gomes, Premier Vasco Gonçalves, and three generals in charge of the Government and the military—President Francisco da Portugal's Armed Forces Movement put its 240-member assembly broke down. Thus, he said, Israel would not summarily reject the latest proposals, but would offer counterproposals. [1:7.] tary of State Kissinger's shuttle mediation than those proposed in March when Secrenot acceptable." But he said they were better agreement in Sinai were still "substantially Egypt's proposals for a new disengagement Premier Yitzhak Rabin of Israel said that still expressed strong opposition, and the House majority leader, Thomas P. O'Neill, the Democratic majority. Most Democrats cessions intended to make it acceptable to rise in oil prices that included some conand more complicated said that Mr. Ford's proposal "will be de-President Ford sent to Congress a new plan for a gradual O'Neill, > the ground that it was inflationary. [11:6-8.] vetoed a $7.9-billion education-aid bill 90

National

B-1 strategic bomber that will cost $84 million a plane, and the construction of a nuclear-powered Navy cruiser that will cost $1.2-billion, [1:5.] ize preliminary funding for production of a military procurement bill that would author-House and Senate conferees agreed on a

by a noxious gas, of unknown origin, that filled their spaceship during their return to treatment of respiratory irritations caused Hospital in Honolulu for observation and earth Thursday, [1:1.] The Apollo astronauts entered Triples

Honduran conflict over land continues. negotiations.

Page 9

Joint Chiefs ask curb on arms

Waldheim says Sadat favors to Jordan.

Page 8

Bayadère."

Page 9

Metropolitan

be decided by the middle of next week, David L. Yunich, the agency's chairman, said Meanwhile, the City Council voted to end the nickel fare on the Staten Island ferry, in effect since 1898. The round-trip or 50 cents now and perhaps rise again next year, according to deficit projections fare will be 25 cents. [1:4.] Authority. The amount of the increase may released by the Metropolitan Transportation Bus and subway fares will increase to 45 put an austerity program into effect or faulted on its bonds. [50:1-2,] Federal Government was not likely to ease New York City's fiscal crisis, even if the city put an austerity program into effect or deporation were told by Treasury Secretary William E. Simon in Washington that the Officials of the Municipal Assistance Cor-ployes to leave work even earlier than 4 P.M. He said that the layoff statistics had led to "attacks on my credibility, and the credibility of my administration." His recharged his administrators and commissioners with providing him with faulty figures on personnel layoffs, and allowing city emupset," Mayor Beame at a Cabinet meeting the meeting. [1:3.] marks stunned the 80 officials attending Describing himself as "damned angry and expected, not only because of layoffs in the was piling up on streets at a faster rate than Commissioner Robert T. Groh seid, however erate slowdowns, and low morale. Sanitation department, but also because of confusion the remaining work force properly, resulting from problems in redistributing City sanitation officials said that garbage news helps. Helsinki pact.

The Other News

"The problem with the city is that people don't be-

Quotation of the Day

Africa group takes step on Israel U.N. ban. Page 5 Dr. Carl McIntire is expelled India arrests prominent jour-Army in Angola moves to-Hope lags on sale of arms to Bonn foes bid Schmidt reject International Talk of Jerusalem: Nonsense by Kenya. nalist ward capital. Yugoslavia. Page 1 Page 5 Page 2 Page 2 Page 3 Page 4 Whitney unpacks its abstract Amusements and the Arts Alaska doctors working un-Depression called one of most Health and Science top administrators for allegedly giving him faulty ures on layoffs and other economies. [1:3.] lieve what we're doing."-Mayor Beame, attacking

Nixon Watergate testimony √ Senate unit debates summon-Service group assails denial of export license. Page 26 A blackout deepens City Metropolitan Notes. Page 24 Energy Congress is divided on Ford's Hathaway resigns as Secre-Democratic 'telethon' tonight Government and Politics Hall's fiscal gloom. Page 51 ing Nixon on Chile. Page 21 oil proposal. to raise funds. withheld. tary, Ford accepts. Page 10 Page 24 Page 11 Page 2 Adm. Thomas Klakring, sub-marine hero . Page 26 City day camp emphasizes musical activities. Page 12 Farm stands have appeal for city dwellers. Page 12 Business and Financial Former Representative Lester Going Out Guide Page 15 Antique bottle collection Obituaries Family/Style city dwellers.

New oil-price plan relieves economists . Page 29

Dow drops by 6.96 as trading

Page 29

General

Minorities found rejected, 2-1, Metropolitan Briefs. Page 27 State orders closing of three nursing homes. Page 27 Flectricity costs up 30% for handguis.
Thunderstorms drop 2 inches
27
Thunderstorms on city. Page 27 Beame backs registration Security checks nearly done in refugee camps. Page 26 Maine Carolina woman is upheld on 200 Times pressmen halt U.S. presses local gas stations school tax law. on ceiling prices. for mortgages. aine coast towns work in protest. handguns. Page Page Page 26 Page 24 Page 20 Page 27 fight

Wage contracts topping gains won in 1974. Page 29

won in 1974.

People and Business: Reserve

change urged,

Page 35

Dividends Business Briefs Business Records

Commodities

33 Market Place s 32 Mutual Funds 31 N.Y. Stock Exch.

Amer. Exchange Bond Sales

Market Indicators

Surplus U.S. rice hampering Thai trade. Page 29

Page 29 Page 29

More banks raise prime lending rate to 71/2%. Page 29

Apco fight: key to Northwest

Page 29

Singer Company moves back New economic spurs to recovery urged.

Page 29 Page 29

Patents: Process cleans contaminated blood. Energy Co. into the black.

Sports

Mostly Mozart concert is balm for city night. Page 16 City Center names John Sam-uels 3d as head. Page 16 Newport Music Festival has "Coppelia" at Met. Page 14 Ballet Theater presents "La Canadians mount a rustic Bicentennial theme. Page 15 treatable disorders. Page 10 Page 20 Page 14 Page 13 Page 49 Kingman belts 20th An old jalopy attention-getter Cup zone play. at Giants' beat Cubs, camp. 6-3.

be auctioned.

Farah Pahlevi on reconciling science and spirit. Page 23 Frank Gilbreth: the trouble Editorials and Letters. Page 22 C. L. Sulzberger on eclipse of Mr. Fanfani. Page 23 Theodore Cross assays lag with gray shingles. Page 23 heodore Cross assays lag in incomes of blacks. Page 23

News Analysis

Lee Dembart on who has power in city crisis. Page 50

Britton and Dalrymple reach Met. golf final. Page 19 Sweden, Spain at 1-1 in Davis Jets find no easy solution to kicking woes. Page 18 platform diving. Page 17
Athletes seek Olympic feeling in Montreal meet, Page 17 Janet Ely captures crown in platform diving. Page 17 Brewer, Nicklaus share shot lead with 136's. Page 17 Red Sox just may not swoon this time. Page 17 Notes on People Page 13 Page 20 Page 18 as Mets Page 17

Editorials and Comment

R. Johnson.

Page 26