

News Summary and Index

NYTimes

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1975

NOV 24 1975

The Major Events of the Day

International

The faithful who had fought for Generalissimo Francisco Franco gathered in the Valley of the Fallen yesterday where their leader was entombed inside a mountain in the vast crypt he had built about 40 miles northwest of Madrid. Some 70,000 veterans of the Civil War, Falangists and others came from all the provinces of Spain in a fleet of buses to make their farewell. [Page 1, Columns 1-4.]

Fighting spread in Beirut and its suburbs as a cease-fire, proclaimed three weeks ago, continued to unravel. Eight people were reported killed and 15 were reported wounded, and as night fell the sounds of explosions increased. [1:3.]

Navy officers at the Sixth Fleet headquarters at Gaeta, northwest of Naples, said that at least four men were killed, four missing and 16 injured in the collision in the Mediterranean Sea Saturday night between the aircraft carrier John F. Kennedy and the guided-missile cruiser Belknap. They said that the casualty figures were preliminary and could be higher. At least 55 men were rescued from the sea. The officers said they could not explain why the ships collided and that a formal inquiry was under way. They denied reports that the cruiser was refusing from the carrier. [1:1-2.]

Portugal's military leaders are faced with the most serious crisis of authority since they came to power after the revolution 19 months ago. President Francisco da Costa Gomes and the Council of the Revolution—under pressures from all sides to take strong action to restore the Government's authority and establish clearly where Portugal is going—will hold an emergency meeting today [3:1-3.]

National

Senator George McGovern admonished his party not to "sell its soul on busing," which, he said, was "one inescapable remedy of the Constitution for a proven case of segregation." At the closing session of a three-day convention on Democratic issues in Louisville, Ky., Mr. McGovern accused his party colleagues, in a speech on busing, of "abandoning the public dialogue to demagoguery." Convention officials had tried to dissuade him from making the speech because of the bitter opposition in Louisville to the court-ordered busing there. [1:6-7.]

The Other News

International

Israel intensifies search for its own oil. Page 2

Crisis in Lisbon comes to a boil. Page 3

Pro-Western Angolan groups complain of arms. Page 3

Waldheim optimistic after talks in Syria. Page 4

Discordant Surinam awaits freedom. Page 6

Dutch society strained by Surinam refugees. Page 7

North Africans lobby at U.N. on Spanish Sahara. Page 8

Greeks split on plans to develop country. Page 9

Belgrade steels attitude toward Albania. Page 11

Ottawa's wage-price plan due for final vote. Page 13

Traditional values persist in rural Japan. Page 22

Government and Politics

Two Presidents held aware of plots. Page 15

Census officials oppose release of data. Page 17

Gallup Poll shows big gain for Jackson. Page 26

"News biz" dominance is goal at Oakland Tribune. Page 38

4 in Presidential race vie for N.D.C. backing. Page 47

In a brief slip, Rockefeller describes his status. Page 47

Presidential hopefuls fail to win county leaders. Page 47

General

Nader undaunted despite communism's decline. Page 1

Charity panel urges higher tax deductions. Page 12

Court hears suit on attacking Congressman. Page 16

New Yorkers rally today in Times Square. Page 37

Klan's radio ads seeking public support. Page 37

Will Rogers TB hospital is closing. Page 37

Metropolitan Briefs. Page 39

Electric heat approved for Battery City. Page 39

Fund bias against municipal hospitals seen. Page 39

Study finds underuse of food stamps in state. Page 39

"Significant facts" awarded in respirator killing. Page 39

Women's role cited in Jewish aid agencies. Page 49

Quotation of the Day

"It is important, it seems to me, that we not substitute rhetoric for reality with regard to our force structure and the maintenance of a military balance."
—Former Defense Secretary James R. Schlesinger, criticizing the proposed defense budget for next year. [1:5.]

Education and Welfare

Columbia dental school gets $7.5 million. Page 10

Amusements and the Arts

"Dynamite Tonight!" is revived at Yale. Page 30

To Samaras, the medium is multiplicity. Page 30

"Rancho Deluxe" opens at D.W. Griffiths. Page 28

Claudio Arrau is heard in piano recital. Page 31

Fredell Lack plays pleasing violin recital. Page 31

Robert Lipsyte's "Sports-World" reviewed. Page 33

CBS presenting programs on assassinations. Page 66

David Attenborough discusses tribal art. Page 66

Going Out Guide Page 30

About New York Page 50

Family/Style

English writer on cookery lives in a cave. Page 48

Parisians telephone for help on family strife. Page 48A

Mixer turns a whole apple into juice. Page 48B

A new school teaches courses for whom. Page 48D

Tastings rate some American wines with French. Page 49

Business and Financial

Banks' outlook is glum; loan losses are big. Page 53

Chrysler conflict: Detroit vs. Coventry. Page 53

Study on Peat Marwick generally favorable. Page 53

Security analysts analyze oratory, too. Page 53

Realty trusts trying asset swaps. Page 53

Bond traders worried on money supply. Page 53

Personal Finance: I.R.S. and bank records. Page 53

New orders grow for machine tools. Page 53

Sports

Advertising News 57

Dividends ..... 58

Personal Finance 53

Cardinals rout Jets, 37-6, in Shipp's debut. Page 41

Packers win, 40 to 14, from error-prone Giants. Page 41

Rangers take on Seals at Garden tonight. Page 41

Raiders top Redskins, 26-23, in overtime. Page 41

Nets down Stars, 113 to 106, aided by reserves. Page 41

Vijay Amritraj beats Orantes in Calcutta final. Page 42

Japan widens golf lead over U.S. to 30 points. Page 42

Baker captures stock car race on coast. Page 42

Edmonton beats Montreal, 9-8, for GreyCup. Page 44

Gregg savors Browns' first victory of year. Page 45

Tarkenton sets pass record; Griese is sidelined. Page 45

Nebraska changes mind, votes for Fiesta Bowl. Page 46

Editorials and Comment

Editorials and Letters. Page 34

Anthony Lewis: Implications of our Chile plot. Page 35

William Safire: Kissinger's loss of deft touch. Page 35

Jghn Fairbank: Speculation on China after Mao. Page 35

Joseph Heller: Unpublished piece of fiction. Page 35

There's nothing like it around

The Automobile Exchange In The New York Times. Biggest offering of new and used cars in New York. See the Sports Pages today.