The Major Events of the Day

International
Greece and the United States have reached virtual agreement on a four-year accord under which the four American military bases in Greece will continue operation. The accord, which parallels a four-year agreement on American bases signed with Turkey last month that aroused deep concern in Athens, promises Greece $700 million in military assistance. Syrian troops were said to be establishing encampments six miles inside eastern Lebanon and there were other conflicting, uncertain reports that Syrian troops were moving elsewhere in Lebanon. The reports eclipsed Lebanon's preoccupation with the question of who will be the country's next president. [1:4.]

The Club of Rome, which aroused intense controversy three years ago with the report it commissioned on "The Limits to Growth," now recognizes that further global growth is essential if the problems of world poverty and threats to peace are to be solved. The club, whose members are scholars and businessmen, held a meeting in Philadelphia in honor of the Bicentennial and there Aurelio Pececi, the club's founder, said that the limits-to-growth report, which sold more than 2 million copies worldwide, had served its purpose of "getting the world's attention" focused on the ecological dangers of uncontrolled population and industrial expansion. It was also announced that the club had commissioned a new, major study from the Nobel Laureate, Prof. Jan Tinbergen of the Netherlands on the creation of "a new international order." [1:5.]

National
Final sentencing of Patricia Hearst, convicted last month of armed robbery, was postponed and Judge Oliver J. Carter of Federal District Court in San Francisco sent her, at the request of her defense counsel, to a Federal institution for 90 days of diagnostic study. Miss Hearst faces a maximum of 25 years in prison, but Judge Carter said he intended to reduce that. [1:1-2.]

An official Treasury Department report disclosed that in 1973 Donald C. Alexander, the Commissioner of the Internal Revenue, personally ordered subordinates to shelve an audit of Senator Joseph M. Montoya's tax returns. In addition, the Treasury's investigation disclosed that Mr. Alexander subse-
