

News Summary and Index

NYTimes MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1976 SEP 6 1976

The Major Events of the Day

International

Following 10 hours of discussions between Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger and Prime Minister John Vorster of South Africa in Zurich Saturday and yesterday, both sides strove to give the impression that the discussions on South-West Africa and Rhodesia had been productive, providing Mr. Kissinger with something concrete to present to black African leaders when and if he goes to Africa. The talks are expected to be completed today. [Page 1, Column 8.]

Peace rallies in Northern Ireland organized in the past month by two Belfast women have stirred more optimism and hope than anyone has seen in the province in years. After a new series of killings in the Belfast area in August, Mairead Corrigan and Betty Williams organized and led a peace march of 10,000 women. A week later 20,000 marched and the following week people started thinking that there might be something to this "peace movement" after all. A total of 25,000 joined up. [1:6-7.]

Three Palestinians who hijacked a Dutch airliner Saturday with 80 people aboard freed their hostages in return for a promise from the Greek Cypriot authorities of their own freedom. The hijackers had demanded that Israel release eight prisoners in exchange for freedom for their hostages. The plane was flown from Nice to Tunis to Cyprus and toward Israel and then back to Cyprus where those aboard were released at the airport in Larnaca. Airport officials said it was understood that the hijackers would receive safe passage to a country of their choice. A Libyan official was in the police car that took the hijackers in the direction of Nicosia. [1:5.]

National

The former chief lobbyist for the Gulf Oil Corporation has told a Federal grand jury that he made an illegal corporate contribution in 1973 to Senator Robert J. Dole, now the Republican Vice-Presidential nominee, who was then preparing to run for re-election, according to sources familiar with the investigation. The money amounted to $5,000 or $6,000, the lobbyist said. A spokesman for Mr. Dole said the Senator had reviewed his records and found no indication that the money had been received. An independent review of Mr. Dole's financial report for the 1973-1974 campaign also found no trace of a contribution from Gulf. A White House spokesman said that President Ford was aware of the allegations concerning possible illegal contributions from Gulf to Senator Dole before the latter was chosen as Mr. Ford's running mate. [1:4.]

The Other News

There are signs that hostility to busing for school integration is declining—even in Boston—making civil rights lawyers and leaders and proponents of integration more optimistic than they have been in years. This is a change from their mood of gloom only six months ago, when President Ford was actively searching for a way to halt court-ordered busing. [1:1-2.]

Metropolitan

A banana cream pie was thrown into Daniel P. Moynihan's face as he was campaigning for Democratic Senator from New York on the Lower East Side. It was thrown by a young man who called Mr. Moynihan a "fascist pig." The pie thrower, who ran away, was caught by Moynihan workers and the police and was identified as Aron Kay, who said he was associated with the Youth International Party, the so-called "Yippies." Mr. Moynihan refused to press charges. He said, however, that the incident "scared hell out of me." [1:5-7.]

On this Labor Day, New York labor leaders are generally gloomy about the employment outlook for next year and are pinning their hopes for an economic turnaround on a Democratic Administration in Washington. "It's like a big jungle," John Murray, president of Plumbers Local No. 2, said. "Some of my plumbers have been out of work for two years. Right now we don't see any light in the tunnel, maybe no major jobs for another two years. They can't understand why Congress, why their leaders, why somebody, doesn't do something about the job situation." [1:3.]

A 22-year-old man who had come reluctantly to New York City—he thought it was becoming very dangerous—to help a friend move out of a fraternity house was stabbed to death at an entrance to Columbia University's Butler Library. Dozens of other students were moving their belongings into and out of dormitories on the block when the murder took place. The dead man, William Wright of North Tarrytown, N.Y., and his friend had interrupted a thief in their car. The attacker, described as a youth about 18 years old, escaped. [1:1-2.]

The Other News

International

French publisher, amid outcry, seeks Paris daily. Page 2
Better U.S. ties with Mexico expected. Page 3
The Sinai pact and the Arab summit talk. Page 3
New strike reported planned in South Africa. Page 3
5 African presidents meet in Tanzania. Page 3
Warring factions hold Leba non peace talks. Page 4
Eskimos seek Ottawa approval for written language. Page 4
North Sea hunt on for John Paul Jones ship. Page 4
Londoners cooling toward Arabs. Page 17

Government and Politics

Ethics panel is emerging as a power. Page 6
F.B.I. lets ex-agents solicit funds in offices. Page 7
Carter gears for a low-budget campaign. Page 16
Voters in Baltimore suburb favor Carter. Page 16
Hirschfeld charges Moynihan with failing to vote. Page 16

General

Machine called "Jaws" helps to save lives. Page 17
Metropolitan Briefs. Page 19
Bronx-Westchester primary "wide open." Page 19
"Tasteit" billboards to help tourists now legal. Page 19
Anker asks check on more school purchases. Page 19
Michigan town disputes phone rate rise. Page 23
A.J.C. questions impact of anthology law. Page 28
"Cat Lady" feeds strays nightly at zoo. Page 28
Mediator attempting to avert shirt strike. Page 29
Chavez's union endorses Carter. Page 29
Murder suspect being taken to Greenwich. Page 30

Health and Science

Protein found to be easing chronic hepatitis. Page 30
Religion
Woman, 85, builds church with own money. Page 18
Clergy in poll favor spiritual help. Page 18

Quotation of the Day

"We're killing each other. All I want to do is take a bomb out of a kid's hand and put a tennis racket in it."—Betty Williams of Belfast, who helped organize a campaign of women's marches to protest the violence in Northern Ireland. [2:2.]

Amusements and the Arts

Don Carter Quartet is paced by Lou Hoff. Page 7
Son R&R's swing sounds at the Bottom Line. Page 7
Catherine Malfitano excels in "Bohème." Page 8
Solti, back at Met, is opera optimist. Page 8
"Black Sun," by Geoffrey Wolf, is reviewed. Page 13
Going Out Guide Page 8
About New York Page 9
Family/Style
A sartorial appraisal of the candidates. Page 21
De Gustibus: The appeal of crème fraiche. Page 21
Fashions and buildings of the past. Page 21
Obituaries Page 18
Business and Financial
Airliner competition stirs British show. Page 22
Steel mills expecting demand to grow. Page 22
Nantucket's lure offsets toil of running an inn. Page 22
Holiday Inns seeking Welcome mat on Nantucket. Page 22
Itaipu dam is a giant step for Brazil. Page 22
Commodities: Future and actual grain. Page 22
Personal Finance: Money-market funds. Page 23
Sports
Giants make plane after missing kick. Page 10

Jets can't laugh off losses in preseason.

Bobby Unser takes 500-mile race on Coast. Page 10
Marchbroda quits as coach of Colts in a dispute. Page 10
Nastase is calm in his victory over Riessen. Page 11
Forest Hills doctor scores rule on injury. Page 11
Nicklaus takes Akron golf, $100,000 by 4 shots. Page 11
Trot drivers' fight rules after horse's collapse. Page 11
Canadian team downs U.S. in cup hockey. Page 11
Yankess fall despite many moves of Martin. Page 11
Phil's plitchee homers twice, beats Mets, 3-1. Page 12
Roundup: Ryan of Angels dinks A's hopes. Page 12
Sander captures U.S. Amateur golf crown. Page 13
Man in the News
John Shattuck: new head of Washington A.C.L.U. Page 7
Editorials and Comment
Editorials, Letters. Page 14
Anthony Lewis sees trouble ahead for Carter. Page 15
Charles D. DiNatale beams job shortage. Page 15
Tenzin N. Tethong on Tibet and China. Page 15
Louis Untermeyer: To Edna St. Vincent Millay. Page 15
News Analysis
David Bird on Medicaid cheating by doctors. Page 30

TAKING TIME OFF?

For ideas on where to go and how to get there, read America's biggest and best-tread vacation guide—the Travel and Resorts Section of

The New York Times

CORRECTION

A report in The New York Times on Aug. 7 mentioned a suit that blocked city regulation of Medicaid facilities and said it had been filed by the Association of Health Providers. The suit was, in fact, brought by the Association of Health Care Facilities.