

New Donor List$2.45 Million
Given Nixon

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Campaign contributors tossed another $2.45 million into President Nixon's reelection fund during June and July, newly filed public records show.

Key Republican campaign committees, complying with a new law, said yesterday that contributors ranged from wealthy past donors and government employes to thousands of small contributors.

Topping the list for the two-month period were three members of the Pew family of Philadelphia, who contributed $36,000 in all. The family is associated with the Sun Oil Co.

W. Clement Stone, a Chicago insurance executive who was the biggest single Nixon donor in 1968, sent $23,000. The same amount also came from Edward J. Hand of Buffalo, vice president of Ryder Systems, and his wife.

Other major donors listed included:

- $18,522 from Mr. and Mrs. Foster G. McGaw of Evanston, Ill. He is honorary chairman of American Hospital Supply Corp.

- $15,000 from Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd I. Miller of Cincinnati. He is president of American Controlled Industries.

- $12,000 from some partners and the firm of Adams, Duque and Hazeltine of Los Angeles, a law firm Nixon was associated with in 1961-62.

- $12,000 from David Rockefeller, head of the Chase Manhattan Bank.

- $12,000 from Anthony T. Rossi of Tropicana Products inc., Bradenton, Fla.

- $12,000 from four executives of the Max Factor cosmetic firm.

- $12,000 from Paul Trousdale of Los Angeles.

- $12,000 from New York investment banker Neil A. McConnell.

- $12,000 from A. E. Johnson, retired, of Denver.

- $11,811 from Richard A. Moore, special counsel to the President.

- $9,000 from three members of the Binion family, associated with the Horseshoe Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas.

55,000 Donations

Not all the money came from large donors, however. The records said some $1.1 million came in amounts of less than $100 per contributor. The Finance Committee to Re-Elect the President said it received more than 55,000 individual donations during the two months.

The finance committee and three key affiliates reported they raised about $10 million prior to April 7, the effective date of the new federal campaign finance reporting law.

The names of those donors have not been disclosed and the committee has said they won't be.

Records show the key committees spent $4.91 million during June and July, leaving them with a balance of $7.76 million.

The bulk of expenses were for convention arrangements, salaries and travel.

Payment to McCord

The expenditures report also lists a $384 payment to James W. McCord on June 1 for closed circuit TV equipment. McCord is the former security coordinator for the committee who was arrested June 17 and charged with breaking into Democratic National headquarters. He was fired two days later.

Final salary checks also are listed for McCord and two others who left the committee following the break-in counsel G. Gordon Liddy and treasurer Hugh Sloan Jr.

In addition to the direct contributions, the report lists other lesser receipts including a $40,000 loan from Darius Keaton, associated with the Charter Trading Co. of Monterey, Calif.
