from column by Maxine Cheshire:

...ell are

Kennedy H. Dahlberg, the Minneapolis businessman who is midwest finance chairman for the Republican campaign, had one of his Mexican subsidiaries make up special, matching gold pins for him to give President and Mrs. Nixon. But after Dahlberg's name became involved on the periphery of the Watergate investigation, he had second thoughts.