

OCT 31 1972

NYTimes

Mansfield Asserts Senate Must Investigate Watergate

HELENA, Mont., Oct. 29 (AP)—Senator Mike Mansfield, Democrat of Montana, said Sunday that a thorough Senate investigation into the Watergate affair "and all its ramifications is mandatory."

Regarding the alleged bugging of Democratic offices in the Watergate complex and the subsequent charges of corruption leveled at the Committee for the Re-election of the President, Mr. Mansfield, the Senate majority leader, said: "I expect some senatorial committee will look thoroughly into this and its findings will be released."