the subpoenas] come in," the documents at the depositions. STAY ON SUBPORNA

STAY ON SUBPORNA

MAR 7 1973

10 in Watergate Case Win a

Delay in Fight on Summons
W 11985

By Walter Rugaber
Special to The New York Times.

Washington Narch 6
Judge Charles R. Richey of the United States District Court here gave attorneys for 10 jouralists today until next Tuesday to file motions to get subpoens gruashed that have been served on them by President to the Watergate building last the watergate case as an employe of Senator George McTimes, The Washington Post, Time Served on them by President Served on them by President Served on the by President Served on the by President Served on the busyling of its offices at the watergate building last sponded with libel and maliscious abuse of process charges.

An attorney for the Republicans reporter with The New York Times, The Washington Served on them by President Served on the busyling of its offices at the suppoens until March 16.

The Democratic suit grew out of the bugging of its offices at the Watergate building last sponded with libel and maliscious abuse of process charges.

An attorney for the Republicans on the hand and the Democratic suit grew out of the bugging of its offices at the watergate case as an employe of Senator George Mc-Times, The Washington Post, Time New York Times, The Washington Post, Time New York Times as a remover of the subpoens until March 16.

"I understand the issues," Judge Richey today that he watergate case as an implementation of the subpoens until March 16.

"I understand the issues," Judge Richey today that he watergate case as an employe of Senator George McCourt.

The lawyers said they had been asked to bring their notes and a large amount of other memories, An attorney for the newspapers said this would not prevent examination of the law is."

The lawyers said they had been asked to bring their notes and a large amount of other memories, An attorney for the newspapers said this would not prevent examination of the memories. An attorney for the Republicans on the hand and the Democratic suit g judge explained at another The journalists named in the point, "I immediately sensed subpoenas are John Crewdson,

*Correction refers to immunity for newsmen, filed Press 6 Mar 73.

* 13 MARCH