Senate Panel Calls Dean In a Challenge to Nixon case, in which two members of Mr. Nixon's campaign staff were found guilty of conspir-

Judiciary Unit Votes, 16 to 0, to 'Invite' President's Legal Counsel to Testify President's Legal Counsel to 1 estify in Inquiry on F.B.I. Nomination MAR 1 4 1973 MAR 1 4 1973 MAR 1 4 1973 MAR 1 4 1973 Special to The New York Times WASHINGTON, March 13— today what steps they would The Senate Judiciary Committee, in a direct challenge to tinued to refuse to make Mr. President Nixon, voted unani- Dean available. In a direct challenge to tinued to refuse to make Mr. Dean available. In a four other men pleaded guilty to the same charges. Mr. Gray has told the committee that he sent a number of reports relating to the bureau's Watergate investigation to Mr. Dean, who was named by President Nixon to head a separate inquiry into the incident. Mr. Gray has disclosed that among the documents he supmously today to call his chief legal counsel, John W. Dean 3d, as a witness at its hearings on the normination of I. Patrick.

The Committee decision was plied at Mr. Dean's request and were more than 80 reports of the substance of bureau inter-3d, as a witness at its hearings seven Republicans. Senator John V. Gray 3d to become director of California Democrat who of

The vote of 16 to 0 to "invite" Mr. Dean to testify, taken in a closed meeting of the committee, came a day after Mr. Nixon said in a policy statement that members of his personal staff would decline all requests for formal appearances before Congressional committee.

Mr. Nixon did not mention Mr. Dean in the statement, but he said earlier this month, "No President could ever agree to allow the counsel to the President asked for additional, private sessions with Federal agents after day that information that Mrs. Hoback "had had a private disviewed in the presence of cussion with the F.B.I. did not not nention."

Senator Edward M. Kennedy, Democrat of Massachusetts, added he was "hopeful" that Mr. Nixon, despite his previous statements, would "see the importance of permitting Mr. The president of the President asked for additional, private sessions with Federal agents after day that information that Mrs. Hoback "had had a private disviewed in the presence of cussion with the F.B.I. did not come from F.B.I. sources at At least three reports from individuals requesting such confidential interviews, he said, were among those he sent to him on July 28.

A spokesman for the Nixon re-election committee said to-day that information that Mrs. Hoback "had had a private disviewed in the presence of cussion with the F.B.I. did not come from F.B.I. sources at Mr. Dean at the White House. Seenator Bayh, Democrat of Indiana, released yesday an affidavit from one of sume. It also decided to call Mrs. Hoback as a witness when hearings results to the Nixon finance and the Mrs. A spokesman for the Nixon re-election committee agent to having been "officially" inter-theorem cussion with the F.B.I. did not come from F.B.I. sources at Mr. Dean at the White House. Seenator Bayh, Democrat of Indiana, released yesday an affidavit from one of sume. It also decided to call Mrs. Hoback as a witness when hearings results to the Nixon finance and the Mrs. Hoback as a witness when hearings results to the Nixon finance and the Mrs. Hoback as Senator John V. Tunney, the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The vote of 16 to 0 to "in-"quite improbable" that the vite" Mr. Dean to testify, taken committee would vote to committee would vote to committee would vote to committee would vote to committee the committee asked that have been unresolved."

Senators Tunney and Kennedy have led committee Demnedy have led committee Dem-ocrats in accusing Mr. Gray of being too closely associated "To my knowledge, I had with the White House and the Republican party.

Senator Mike Mansfield of dence, and no one else knew, she said. indicated before the committee vote that the request to Mr. Dean would have the approval of the Democratic leadership. Asked whether he thought that the Gray nomination should be held up until a special Senate investigation on the bugging of he Democrats was complete, he replied, "I would think so, but that's a question for the Juliciary Committee to decide."

The committee's hearings House press secretary, told have focused mainly on Mr. newsmen today that, after Gray's direction of the F.B.I.'s speaking with Mr. Dean about investigation of the Watergate the matter this morning, "I can The ing to tap telephones of the Democratic party during last year's campaign. In addition, E. Howard Hunt Jr., a former White House consultant, and four other men pleaded guilty views made in connection with tee members declined to say Continued on Page 48, Column 3 into the office of a Nixon campaign official where committee lawyers were also present. One of them, she related, "said words to the effect of 'I hear > not informed anyone of my interviews with the F.B.I. the interviews were in o in confi-

Gerald Warren, deputy White

the matter this morning, "I can state categorically, Mr. Dean did not supply any information regarding the lady.

"He could not do that because he had not received any information," Mr. Warren said, adding that "a careful reading" of newspaper accounts "would indicate that."

33 Gray-Dean Talks

At the Judiciary Committee's At the Judiciary Committee's request, Mr. Gray supplied yesterday a list of his contacts with Dr. Dean, both in person and by telephone, from June to September last year. The list shows that he and Mr. Dean met or talked 33 times in that period period.

Many of the conversations carry the notation that they dealt with the leaking of details of the bureau's investigation to the media, but one, on July 26, is listed as a request by Mr. Dean for the interview reports, which the list shows reports, which the list shows were sent to him on July 28. A spokesman for the Nixon

Mr. Nixon did not mention Mr. Dean in the statement, but he said earlier this month, "No President could ever agree to allow the counsel to the President to go down and testify before a committee."

The Judiciary Committee votset as a witness when hearings resuments and affidavit from one of the three, Judith Hoback, who as alleged to it," Senator Kennedy said. "I think Mr. Gray's entitled to it," Senator Kennedy said. "Mr. Gray has been responsive, but now it's for Mr. Dean to the boack said that "within 48 respond on a number of areas hours" of her second confidential interview she was called into the office of a Nixon cambally was added he was "hopeful" that Mr. Dean at the White House. Seenator Birch Bayh, Democrat of Indiana, released yes-day an affidavit from one of the three, Judith Hoback, who the three, Judith Hoback, who served in the campaign as an assistant to the Nixon finance committee treasurer, Hugh W. Sloan Jr.

In the sworn document, Mrs. Hoback as witness when hearings resume. It also decided to call Thomas Lumbard, a former assistant to the Nixon finance committee treasurer, Hugh W. Sloan Jr.

In the sworn document, Mrs. Hoback as witness when hearings resume. It also decided to call Thomas Lumbard, a former treasury and Justice Department lawyer who has alleged that Mr. Dean worked closely witn G. Gordon Liddy, a counsel to the Nixon campaign's finance committee who was one of the men convicted in the Watergate trial.