Dial Martha And You Get John

New York

With Watergate revelations breaking every day, everyone wants to talk to Martha Mitchell. Her New York telephone number has become one of the most sought-after items of the year.

The old number has been changed. Information refers the caller to the number listed for Mrs. John Mitchell on Fifth Avenue. On the end of that line is a lady who good-naturedly says her name is John Mitchell and always has been.

"The last two days have been frantic," she says. "People keep calling and asking for John Mitchell. I tell them, 'I'm John Mitchell' and they say, 'Oh, is this Martha?' I say 'No, this is John.'"

Apologies for disturbing her are met with a friendly, "That's perfectly alright; this is kind of fun."
