

Nixon Planning

Visit to Japan

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Nixon will visit Japan at a “convenient” future time, a State Department spokesman said today.

“The question at this point is simply arranging a time convenient to both his schedule and the Japanese,” said spokesman Charles W. Brady.

The New York Times has reported from Tokyo that Japan had no plans to invite Nixon to come there any time soon.
