

SFChronicle SFChronicle

Stocks

MAY 19 1973

Plunge

New York

The stock market took its second severe battering of the week yesterday against the background of the Senate Watergate hearings and reported rising fears of a business slump.

The Dow Jones averages which dropped 18.29 points Monday, plunged another 16.55 yesterday in heavier trading, closing at 895.17.

Details on Page 52.

Associated Press