States District Court Judge William Mehrtens said Thursday he had suppressed wiretaps showing "overwhelming" evidence of guilt in 11 Federal gambling, narcotics and bribery cases because former Attorney General John N. Mitchell 'be lieved he could ignore an express command of Congress."

"It is with the greatest reluctance that I suppress the evidence in this and the other 10 Mr. Mitchell was Attorney denote in this and the other 10 Mr. Mitchell was Attorney he cases," Judge Mehrtens said in the order. "The evidence of guilt derived from the wiretaps is overwhelming."

But Judge Mehrtens said he was forced to act because a quite clear that the mintent of hothers in ling that the applications were improperly authorized, "The blame for this waste of public resources, however, does not rest with the court," he said. "It lies squarely in the office of the Attorney General of the United States. "For some reason unknown to this court, the highest law enforcement officer in this country [Mr. Mitchell] believed he could ignore an express command of Congress."

"A series of thorough and guilt derived from the wiretaps is overwhelming."
