Ellsberg Decries 'Police State' Tactics

By STEVEN V. ROBERTS

Special to The New York Times

LOS ANGELES, June 5—Dr.

Daniel Ellsberg said today that the break-in at his psychiatrist's office was part of an "executive coup" planned in the White House to "change our form of government to a police state."

The former Defense Department aide talked to newsmen after testifying before a Los and Anthony J. Russo Jr.

in at Dr. Ellsberg's psychiatrist. The break-in was disclosed during Dr. Ellsberg's recent that it call on charges of conspiracy, charges stemming from the Watergate burglary and has admitted planning the Beverly Hills break-in. Hunt said that none of Dr. Ellsberg's records were found at the office, but Dr. Ellsberg said there was "every indication" that his records, along with those ment aide talked to newsmen after testifying before a Los Angeles County grand jury that opened an investigation today into the break-in, which took place on Sept. 3, 1971.

MeManwhile, ti was disclosed that John D. Ehrlichman, President Nixon's former chief domestic adviser, would testify later this week. Mr. Ehrlichman had over-all supervision of a White House group called the "plumbers" that was charged with stopping national security leaks and engineered the break-in caused him to drop the charges against him to drop the charges against or ords had been located and photographed. The records, along with those of Dr. Fielding's other patients, were found in considerably disarray after the break-in, Dr. Ellsberg mentioned news of Dr. Fielding's other patients, were found in considerably disarray after the break-in, Dr. Ellsberg said.

The records, along with those of Dr. Fielding's other patients, were found in considerably disarray after the break-in, Dr. Ellsberg refused to distomes here than I wish he did."

Dr. Ellsberg mentioned news of Dr. Fielding's other patients, were found in considerably disarray after the break-in, Dr. Ellsberg said.

The records, along with those of Dr. Fielding's other patients, were found in considerably disarray after the break-in, Dr. Ellsberg said.

The grand jury also heard testimony today from Dr. Fielding and the maintenance people who were working on the night of the break-in. Tomornow's witness list includes Hunt and two of his accomplices, Bernard Barker and Eugenio Martinez, who also have pleaded guilty in the Water-gate against and his co-defendant, Anthony J. Russo Jr.

In a news conference here, or like the White House of Dr. Fielding's other patients, were found in considerably disarray after the break-in, Dr. Ellsberg said.

The grand jury also heard testimony today from Dr. Fielding and the maintenance people who were working on the night of the break-in. Tomornow's witness list includes Hunt and two of his accomplices, Bernard Barker and Eugenio Martinez, who al

0/6/73 NYT