

No Press Conference

Washington

Despite continued promises that President Nixon would soon hold a news conference, the White House yesterday ruled out any such session for this week.

Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler, in response to reporters' questions, said the President "does not have one scheduled and I do not expect one this week."

Associated Press
