

SFChronicle JUN. 1, 2 1973

Watergate Cited In Santa Cruz Student Suicide

Santa Cruz

The Santa Cruz county coroner's office reported yesterday that a University of California student killed himself after friends said, he became despondent over the Watergate scandal and "the world situation."

Thomas S. Hamilton, 23, of West Covina, a junior majoring in political science at the university's Santa Cruz campus, was found dead in his panel truck of carbon monoxide poisoning.

United Press