Most Outspoker

By Dorothy McCardle and Jeannette Smyth

Watergate tragedy," speakwas at it again in "this very, day, Julie Nixon Eisenhower ing out in defense of her favery difficult time of the available Nixon and, yesterthe most outspoken and She's rapidly becoming organization of 1972." Mrs. Eisenhower said she "felt proud of the campaign tion for 250 Teen Age Republican At a White House recep-(TAR) leaders

To the youth whose ages ranged from 13 to 17, she said, "Thousands of workers much. I hate to see all the dowed." and a half years overshathe good things my father has done in the past fourgood things they did and all all over the country did so had phoned her from Camp David the night before to say that his talks with Soviet General Secretary Leoher father at Camp David and tell him of their reacconfidence," she said. down, she told her audience She said that her father hat she would telephone "I'll give him your vote of After the ovation died when she submitted to questions. Asked how she feels it Watergate several very well." She was led back to the times nid Brezhnev were going,

will affect the 1974 congresfacts. a vote were taken today, the "Not all the charges are in. be very favorable," adding, results would probably not sional elections, she said, "If We have not had all the

"Maybe in a month or two will do when he leaves the White House, she said that think about the future." he had "been so over-Asked what her father public appearances ence brought her tally of University Women conferton Hilton last night to an American Association of A speech at the Washingthis nev's honor the same eveed the state dinner in Brezhshe was among those who greeted Soviet Communist nev on the White House Tricia Cox, has made only lawn, and when she attendtwo public appearances in more than three weeks. Both were on Monday, when Party chief Leonid Brezhenthusiatic AAUW group Nixon, had dinner together that she, her husband and her mother, First Lady Pat Mrs. Eisenhower told the she predicted. things may turn around," whelmed by present events, he has had no chance to week to six. In contrast, her sister

Julie Nixon Eisenhower addresses a conference of the American Association By Linda Wheeler—The Washington Post

S NUL T E161

of University Women.

Bethesda. Eisenhowers' house în group. You go work on your remarks. So I went off to after dinner that her daughter was going to speak to my room, and she and David did the dishes." 'That's a very important hower recalled, the women later, Mrs. Eisen-When Mrs. Nixon learned "She said mention Watergate specifi-Mrs. Eisenhower did not > in our society." to nearly every institution ment, but is now spreading mainly to the neck of governbe an albatross which clung "mistrust . . . which used to cally but spoke of public dence has dropped by 23 per cent in the Congress, 28 per cent in the Supreme she said, that over a five-She cited an Opinion Research Poll which showed, year period public confi-

Court and 35 per cent in the military.

of the Nixon administration's "New Federalism" depends ing, education, banks and local retailers. cluding the press, advertison the people's trust in watchdogs" over institutions women to act as "day-to-day and encouraged the AAUW that people don't trust, intheir government officials She said that the success

MXPost