Pacific Tell & Tell

ONE OF THE names in Brandy's Little Black Book (she's the madam whose Pacific Heights bagnio was busted a few days ago) is that of a prominent State Legislator; a high-ranking S.F. police official just couldn't WAIT to phone him the news, "but don't worry, there won't be any leaks" . . . Who or what is the self-styled United Citizens Lobby that's running a boiler-room operation to raise funds for newspaper ads supporting the President and denouncing impeachment? Home base seems to be San Diego, close enough to San Clemente to make sense . . . No plans yet for a San Clemente South in Argentina, incidentally . . . Alger Hiss in an interview taped for release on KSAN-FM tonight at 9: "I never met Nixon but I'd shake his hand if he'd give me executive clemency so I could be a lawyer again." Why he's against impeachment: "I don't know, quite, except that it seems like the supreme arrogance." As for Watergate, "it's the most important thing to happen to this country since the New Deal."
