

Call a Hoax

-White House

URBANA (Ill.) — (AP) — Urbana businessman Dwight Dobbs admits the call he received from the "White House" was probably a hoax, but it hasn't changed his feelings any.

"I still believe in Dick Nixon," Dobbs, 41, said yesterday.

Dobbs had erected a large billboard in Urbana that described his faith and support in the President. He said Nixon called him Thursday night to express thanks.

White House spokesman Gerald Warren said the President had not called and that it appeared to be a hoax.

The billboard, which cost Dobbs $300, read: "I have more faith in this man than I have in any of his accusers, especially the press."

Dobbs signed the billboard: "Dwight Dobbs, a Proud American Citizen."
