Hunt Freedom On Bail Sought

Attorneys for Watergate conspirator E. Howard Hunt Jr. filed a series of motions yesterday, including one asking U.S. District Court Chief Judge John J. Sirica to allow him to be free on bail while he attempts to get the original charges against him dismissed.

Hunt previously had filed a motion asking that he be permitted to change his guilty plea, made at his trial last January, to one of innocent. He also asked that the charges against him be dismissed.

In one of the motions filed yesterday, Hunt asked Sirica to reconsider his earlier decision that Hunt must supply affidavits supporting his request that his guilty plea be thrown out.
