

OCT 13 1973
ORIGINAL CABINET OF NIXON IS GONE

NYT

Agnew Resignation Marked
End of the First Line-Up

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 (AP) — With the resignation on Wednesday of Spiro T. Agnew as Vice President, President Nixon's entire original Cabinet has left office.

The changes in department secretaries:

State: William P. Rogers resigned Aug. 31, 1973. Henry A. Kissinger sworn in Sept. 28, 1973.

Treasury: David M. Kennedy resigned Feb. 1, 1971. John B. Connally sworn in Feb. 11, 1971, resigned May 16, 1972. George F. Shultz sworn in June 12, 1972.

Defense: Melvin R. Laird resignation announced Nov. 27, 1972. Elliot L. Richardson sworn in Jan. 30, 1973, nominated for Attorney General April 30, 1973. James R. Schlesinger sworn in July 2, 1973.

Justice: John N. Mitchell resigned as Attorney General Feb. 16, 1972. Richard G. Kleindienst sworn in June 12, 1972, resigned April 30, 1973. Elliot L. Richardson sworn in May 25, 1973.

Interior: Walter J. Hickel resigned Nov. 25, 1970. Rogers C. B. Morton sworn in Jan. 29, 1971.

Agriculture: Clifford M. Hardin resigned Nov. 11, 1971. Dr. Earl L. Butz sworn in Dec. 2, 1971.

Commerce: Maurice H. Stans resigned Jan. 27, 1972. Peter G. Peterson confirmed Feb. 21, 1972, resigned Dec. 6, 1972. Frederick B. Dent confirmed Jan. 18, 1973.

Labor: George P. Shultz named director of Office of Management and Budget June 10, 1970. James D. Hodgson sworn in July 2, 1970, resigned Nov. 29, 1972. Peter J. Brennan confirmed Jan. 31, 1973.

Health, Education, and Welfare: Robert H. Finch resigned June 6, 1970. Elliot L. Richardson sworn in June 24, 1970, nominated as Defense Secretary Nov. 27, 1972. Caspar W. Weinberger sworn in Feb. 11, 1973.

Housing and Urban Development: George W. Romney resigned Nov. 27, 1972. James T. Lynn confirmed Jan. 17, 1973.

Transportation: John A. Volpe named Ambassador to Italy Dec. 7, 1972. Claude S. Brinegar confirmed Jan. 18, 1973.

Post Office: Winton M. Blount resigned Oct. 29, 1971. Department becomes semi-independent United States Postal Service July 1, 1971 with non-Cabinet status.