

Camp David

Washington

President Nixon went by automobile to his Camp David, Md., lodge last night. No aides accompanied him.

Deputy press secretary Gerald L. Warren said he did not know how long Mr. Nixon would remain there. The President has been making frequent trips to Camp David in recent days and returned just Sunday night from a weekend stay there.

Associated Press
