

The Watergate Jury Wins Extension Vote

Washington

Acting with unusual speed a House subcommittee approved a bill yesterday ordering a six-month extension of the original Watergate grand jury now scheduled to expire December 4.

The measure, scheduled for full House Judiciary Committee action today, also would allow the U.S. district court to extend the life of the 23-member jury for still another six months, to Dec. 4, 1974.

United Press