

The Speculation Over Saxbe's Seat in Senate

Columbus, Ohio

Governor John J. Gilligan discouraged speculation over his choice to replace U.S. Senator William B. Saxbe (Rep-Ohio), while again counting himself out of consideration.

Saxbe was nominated yesterday by President Nixon to be U.S. Attorney General. Democrat Gilligan lost a 1968 Senate race to Saxbe.

Associated Press