By Murrey Marder Washington Post Staff Writer

PEKING, Nov. 14 (Wednesday) — Secretary of State the United States in the fu-Henry A. Kissinger last ture," he told Chinese Premier night pledged long-term American friendship with China regardless of "what happens in the United States" or "what-ever the administration" in Kissinger gave the sweeping assurance in a toast at a ban-quet in the Great Hall of the People as he completed 3½ days, of meetings here. He headed today for his next cessity for all Americans," Kissinger said.

"No matter what happens in Chou En-lai and other guests, "the friendship with the People's Republic of China is one of the constant factors of American foreign policy."

Kissinger then went on to make the reassurance even more precise: "The progress that has been made in our relationship will be continued in the years ahead whatever happens in the future and what-ever the administration."

The American delegation acon's tenure in office. All that of its developing ties with the high official said, was that the present U.S. effort to normalize relations with China is a durable bipartisan policy unaffected by domestic developments.

Kissinger's remarks never-theless spoke for themselves in the present context. In the past he has publicly expressed alarm about the potential international repercussions of Watergate.

It is not the Watergate scandal as such that officially in-terests China or affects its relations with the United States, Kissinger sought to convey, a United States, Chinese sources said.

> In a 234-hour meeting last night Communist Party Chairman Mao Tse-tung, talked with Kissinger in broad conceptual terms about the desired course of U.S.-Chinese relations in the years ahead, Chinese cources said. Mao, 79, seeks a long, predictable relationship with the United tionship with the United States to check what Chinese United describe as the constant threat of "a million Soviet troops on our northern borders."

Kissinger indirectly knowledged last night that a The new ties created between China and the United States since President Nixon came to Peking nearly two horses ago have become "a ne-like the president Nixon challenges to President Nixon challenges to President Nixon fects the long-range continuity of the Watergate scandal or to challenges to President Nixon fects the long-range continuity of the Watergate scandal or to challenges to President Nixon fects the long-range continuity of the Watergate scandal or to challenges to President Nixon fects the long-range continuity of the Watergate scandal or to challenges to President Nixon fects the long-range continuity of the Watergate scandal or to challenges to President Nixon fects the long-range continuity of the Watergate scandal or to challenges to President Nixon fects the long-range continuity of the Watergate scandal or to challenges to President Nixon fects the long-range continuity of the Watergate scandal or to challenges to President Nixon fects the long-range continuity of the Watergate scandal or to challenges to President Nixon fects the long-range continuity of the Watergate scandal or to challenges to President Nixon fects the long-range continuity of the Watergate scandal or to challenges to President Nixon fects the long-range continuity of the Watergate scandal or to challenge the president Nixon fects the long-range continuity of the Watergate scandal or to challenge the president Nixon fects the long-range continuity of the Watergate scandal or to challenge the president Nixon fects the long-range continuity of the Watergate Scandal or to challenge the president Nixon fects the long-range continuity of the Watergate Scandal or to challenge the president Nixon fects the long-range continuity of the Watergate Scandal or to challenge the president Nixon fects the long-range continuity of the Watergate Scandal or to challenge the president Nixon fects the long-range continuity of the Watergate Scandal or to challenge the president Nixon fects the long-range continuity of the Watergate Scandal or with Chou plans to further reduce U.S. forces in Taiwan and possibly in South Korea. Kissinger is expected to stop briefly in South Korea after his visit to Japan.

THE WASHINGTON POST Wednesday, Nov. 14, 1973

During Kissinger's here Chinese officials publicly and privately have emphasized an unfulfilled objective in the February 1972 Shanghai 'Communique signed at the end of President Nixon's break-President Nixon's break-through visit to Peking. In their section of the Communi-

Taiwan."

China's principal newspa-per, People's Daily, yesterday devoted more than half of its front page to photographs and brief news accounts of Mao's meeting with Kissinger, The accounts told this nation of more than 800 million people that the two men met "in a friendly atmosphere." In China's Marxist terms, those are unusually warm words for a meeting with an American of-the words in a document" but "a relations hip that has been established and a future that we have charted."

Kissinger is believed to have discussed with Mao and with Chou plans to further re malization of relations between China and the United States and keep news faction that progress has been made and with a feeling of the scandal out of the public press, the Watergate in quiry is said to be regularly discussed in detail in the privately circulated "Reference News Service," this news sheet for party and govern Taiwan." sheet for party and government insiders is distributed daily to about 6 or 7 million suscribers, twice the circulation of People's Daily.

During Kissinger's visit Chinese officials approached some Washington-based newsapproached and its possible impact on for-eign policy.

At the farewell dinner the that has been established." Chinese Foreign Minister "We are confident that the friendship between the Chinese and the American people grow stronger and stronger in the days to come."

Newsmen who encountered Premier Chou earlier in the day asked if he had any plans men accompanying him for into go to the United States formation about the political Chou replied: "As long as interplay in the United States there is a representative of over the Watergate scandal the Chiang Kai-shek clique and its possible impact on for the Nationalist Chienese government on Taiwan which the Taiwan question is the crucial question obstructing the nor- on their policies toward the At the farewell dinner the At the farewell dinner the Americans were hosts and Kissinger said he was leaving China"with a feeling of satisernment on Taiwan which the