released early in the week. Miss Wynette has plans to tape a network television show later this month.

Nixon's leisure

President Nixon continued to relax yesterday at the Palm Springs estate of his friend, Ambassador Walter Annenberg.

The President has played at least three rounds of golf on the estate's private nine-hole course and enjoyed the pool with his daughter Tricia Cox, and pal C.G. "Bebe" Rebozo, a spokesman said.
